Fake DVD haul left behind at boot sale

COUNTERFEIT goods were left behind when stallholders fled a Cannock car boot sale due to a police presence. The haul of clothing and DVDs was seized by officers in Wellington Drive on Sunday.

A police spokesman said: "Officers from Cannock Local Policing Team carried out a high visibility operation at Cannock car boot sale to prevent and detect offences. "Officers came across large quantities of counterfeit CDs and clothing with a market value of several thousand pounds. The stallholders concerned fled the scene leaving their counterfeit property to be seized by police."

Material

"Consumers are reminded to bear in mind when purchasing counterfeit material it may seem like a bargain but often isn't and counterfeiting undermines legitimate businesses."

The force warned further patrols would be carried out over the Christmas period and enquiries regarding the property seized were being carried out by Trading Standards.

Anyone with information is asked to ring 101 quoting incident 673 of December 1, or call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Town centre festive fun

CHRISTMAS will officially arrive in Hednesford on Saturday, Market Street will be closed to traffic from 11am to 8pm while the festivities take place.

Stalls open at 3pm and will include fairground rides. Later, Santa will arrive to hand out gifts to youngsters. A stage is being set up for Anglesey Square where there will be live music and the lights will be switched on at around 6pm.

Town Council clerk Peter Harrison said: "It is going to be a real community event."

Investigation launched over hospital death

Probe - Ivy Bunn

A NEW investigation has been launched into the death of Stafford Hospital patient, Ivy Bunn died in November 2008 after falling three times in four days.

The 90-year-old, of Stafford, was admitted to the hospital a week earlier after suffering a fall at home, and suffered the falls while in the hospital.

Police have confirmed the Health and Safety Executive would be investigating her death. In total, 209 cases are being looked at - with 36 examined by a joint team from Staffordshire Police and the HSE.

No further action will be taken in 34 cases as no additional information was uncovered that would warrant a criminal investigation. The other case - the death of Gillian Astbury of Hednesford in 2007 - has already been investigated and taken to court by the HSE. Miss Astbury lapsed into a fatal diabetic coma while being treated at Stafford Hospital in April 2007.

Regulations

Peter Galsworthy, HSE Head of Operations in the West Midlands, said: "HSE concluded that two cases considered so far by this review warranted formal investigation relating to health and safety regulations. The first, the death of Gillian Astbury, has resulted in HSE prosecution."

"As a result of the multi-agency review we have recently started an investigation into a second death, that of Ivy Bunn, in November 2008."

Assistant Chief Constable Nick Baker, who is leading the review, said: "Our job is to thoroughly review the 209 cases to see if a criminal offence has potentially been committed which would warrant criminal investigation."

"So far, the team hasn't uncovered any new or additional information which would warrant a criminal investigation in 34 out of 36 cases. However, two have clearly warranted further action under health and safety legislation. Work continues to review the remaining 173 cases."

The investigation group was set up in February following publication of the Francis Inquiry, exposing failings in care across Mid Staffordshire NHS Trust.

Concerns as badger baiting is on the up

WILDLIFE campaigners claim badger baiting is on the increase. As well as unemployment, they linked the rise in the blood sport to a culling programme backed by the government.

The claims follow an animal cruelty case in Staffordshire in which three men were sentenced for badger digging, attempting to take a badger and interfering with badger setts. They were arrested after being spotted on woodland in Essington with dogs.

Jake Berry, aged 20 of Stubby Lane, Wednesfield; Daniel Fry, also 20, of Merrick Road, Wednesfield, and 18-year-old Rhys Dwyer, of Shepherd Drive, Willenhall, were given eight months in jail, suspended for 18 months.

Reason

Sandra Dudley, of the Staffordshire Badger Conservation Group, says people are coming to the county from as far afield as Northern Ireland to bait badgers.

She said a reason for the increase in badger baiting was potential lucrative receipts for 'events' as a single animal can be sold for anything up to £1,000.

"Sometimes badger baiters will commit the act of killing the badger there and then, but the more professional people will arrange an event for the killing."

Councillors cut planned

THE number of councillors representing Lichfield district will be cut by nine, under a recommendation.

The Local Government Boundary Commission says it is 'minded' to slash the number of council representatives from 56 to 47 following a six-week consultation.

Residents in Burntwood, Chasetown, Chase Terrace and Lichfield will now be asked about a new pattern of wards.

They have until February 3 to submit their views.

TROUBLED PUB IN LICENCE REPRIEVE

Report by Marion Brennan

A RUGELEY pub faced with a month-long booze ban has been handed an 11th-hour reprieve. Bosses feared the ban could have put The Shrew out of business for good.

The Market Place pub faced a 28-day suspension of its licence after serving two under-age drinkers as part of a police test purchase operation on August 25. It was the pub's second failure in two years.

Alcohol was previously sold to an under-age drinker in December 2011, a licence review hearing was told.

The licence holder, Trust Inns, has now agreed to provide all its staff with training from a recognised external company within 28 days and follow it up with in-house refresher courses every two months.

The compromise was reached at Tuesday's hearing called by Cannock Council at the request of Staffordshire Police.

Review

But licensing sub-committee chairman Councillor Doris Grace warned there would be no more chances.

She said: "This is a warning to both the licence holder and the designated premises supervisor that they must work together to ensure licence conditions are complied with in order to avoid the police bringing them before another review."

She said a licence suspension would be inevitable next time.

Landlord John Stead said afterwards: "It's a relief although we're disappointed that it got to this point."

The pub was also criticised for 15 incidents at the pub in the last 12 months, seven of them violent. They included a man being assaulted in the bar in September last year and, on another night, a drunken 14-year-old girl who collapsed there after being at a party elsewhere. She suffered a fit and an ambulance had to be called.

But solicitor Tim Shield, speaking for Trust Inns, told the sub-committee that the pub might not recover from a ban.

He said the staff member responsible for the test sale in August had been on his own behind the bar at the time and had made 'a bad judgment call'.

The committee heard he had since resigned, saying he was "full of regret for letting the team down".

Santas in dash through village

A PENKRIDGE mother-of-six was one of 30 villagers dressed as Santa for an annual fundraiser.

Nicola Hughes, aged 46, of Saxon Road, took part in the Santa Dash with her friend Caroline Weetman.

The runners all donned Father Christmas outfits, raising around £200 for good causes supported by event organisers, Penkridge & district Round Table.

Mrs Hughes said: "It was full of community spirit. All of the little children looked gorgeous dressed up."

"It's a lovely event. You see all your friends and everyone cheers everyone else on."

Dozens of people gathered to cheer the runners on Sunday (December 1).

It was held ahead of the traditional Santa tour of Penkridge and surrounding villages, which kicks off on Sunday.

It will take in areas including Wheaton Aston, Lapley, Acton Trussell, Bednall, Bradley and Dunston and ends on December 19.

Paws for thought this Christmas

A PET shop has launched a festive plea to ensure abandoned animals aren't forgotten this Christmas.

The Santa Paws appeal us being run by Pets At Home, which has stores in Cannock and Colton.

The appeal is now in its fourth year and sees gifts collected and donations taken for abandoned animals during the festive season.

From December 1 to 24, the store will be encouraging customers to buy an extra gift or make a donation to benefit a needy pet at a local animal rescue.

Customers can also help to buy a pet a Christmas dinner for a 50p donation, with all money going to a local animal welfare charity.

Joanne Stephens, manager of the Cannock store in Orbital Way, said: "Not every pet is lucky enough to be treated at Christmas and that's why we are launching our Santa Paws appeal again this year. Customers simply pay for their gift at the till and receive a sticker to place on the product.

"The gift can then be placed in the charity collection bin found in store. We will then invite local rescues to come in and collect whatever has been donated."

Last year, the initiative raised more than £114,000 for animals being cared for in UK re-homing centres. Santa Paws is run by Support Adoption For Pets, an independent charity established and supported by Pet at Home.

The charity has raised more than £2 million in the past 12 months thanks to the fundraising efforts of its store colleagues and customers, with the money used to provide financial support to animal welfare charities and local re-homing centres across the UK.

Council chiefs in U-turn over jobs transfer plan

by Kirsten Rawlins

CONTROVERSIAL plans to transfer 250 council staff in Staffordshire to a private company have been scrapped.

Workers in county council departments including finance, IT, human resources and procurement would have been affected by the move under plans put forward by bosses in a bid to save cash.

Hospitals' staff levels on decline

STAFFING levels at Stafford and Cannock Chase hospitals are dropping, with nurse numbers down by 50 in the last year.

Latest figures were revealed at a meeting of Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust which was told health bosses may have to look further afield to recruit.

Director of finance Aaron Cummins said: "The focus for the trust's directors is on making sure that patients are safe and well cared for at Stafford and Cannock Chase Hospital while the Trust Special Administration (TSA) process continues, particularly during the additional challenges the winter months will bring.

Footprint

"We have found it is very hard to get staff to work at the trust when there is such a high turnover so we have started to look at recruiting on a wider footprint.

"We are looking towards North Staffordshire and Burton and have also started to look at overseas recruitment."

The trust also revealed it is facing recruitment difficulties for consultant positions.

However chiefs have instead opted to keep the staff on council books, although they will carry out a fresh review in 12 to 18 months' time.

Under proposals employees would have been transferred to Entrust, a joint venture run by the county council and private firm Capita. But the county council has now confirmed the scheme, which has been heavily criticised and consistently opposed by unions, has been dropped.

Cabinet member for finance Councillor Ian Parry said he and his team did not feel the plans 'suited the council's needs for the future'.

Explored

"As council services change and technology allows us to work smarter we need to find ways to ensure that the county council is in the right shape," he said.

"We have been taking a long hard look how we need to organise our support roles. So we explored a range of ideas and options, but in the end we did not think any suited our needs for the future.

"We intend to look further at how we can design to improve ourselves over the next 12 months then re-examine options."

Steve Elsey, Staffordshire Unison's branch secretary, said: "The road ahead will be challenging for all of us, with the financial challenges clear."

The nine-mile walk raised more than £700 in aid of community nurses from the British Lung Foundation, who helped John Spruce, from Penkridge. He suffered with pulmonary fibrosis and died in March, aged 65.

Others that joined Wolgarston High School pupil Harry were cousins Laura-Jane Till, aged 12, and Bethany Till, nine, and friends Aiden Smith, 15, and Ben Fullwood, 12, who all took part wearing onesies.

Harry said: "I knew how proud my grandfather would have been of me. I want to thank all the people who donated."

Hands-on advice for catering students

CATERING students from a Great Wyrley school were given a masterclass in Indian cookery by staff from a village restaurant.

The Year 11 GCSE students from Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School were given hands-on help by the management and head chefs from Quinton Balti.

They helped to create chicken balti and jalfrezi dishes before making their own chupattis.

The visitors demonstrated a number of professional cookery tips to the students, who are in final preparation of their coursework investigating international cuisine.

A spokesman for the school, in Hall Lane, said: "The whole experience was amazing from start to finish - very fast-paced, full of technical skills and the students thoroughly enjoyed the session.

"The team from the Quinton made the students feel relaxed and positive about their abilities."

Store fundraiser is tribute to ex-colleague

The cheque is presented to corporate fundraiser Debbie Rushbrooke by Sainsbury's staff Paul Davis, Lisa Wright and Debbie Hand

A SUPERMARKET raised more than £3,500 for a hospice thanks to the efforts of one its staff.

Sainsbury's colleague Lisa Wright organised a raffle and obtained more than 60 prizes, ranging from theatre tickets, a meal voucher, beauty products and a selection of hampers to raise money for Katharine House Hospice.

Lisa went in on her days off to sell the raffle tickets at the Cannock store in Orbital Way. She had organised the fundraiser in memory of a former colleague Sue Shaw.

Other colleagues that helped were Debbie Hand, Jill Hopkins, Sarah Szwyd and Emma Horton. Sue's two young daughters, Emma and Maddy came in to draw the raffle and Lisa presented them with Pandora bracelets and charms.

Lisa said: "I would like to say thank you for all the help from family and friends who rallied around to supply the prizes and the support from the local business. I'd also like to thank every customer who contributed to this fantastic amount".

Store manager Paul Davis said: "We are very proud to have colleagues that are so dedicated to helping others."

"Lisa is an inspiration to us all, to have raised such a staggering amount in such a short time," he added.

The cheque for £3,848 was presented to corporate fundraiser Debbie Rushbrooke by Paul Davis, Lisa Wright and Debbie Hand.

ONLINE retailer Amazon has unveiled its latest weapon in the delivery market – unmanned aerial drones that will deliver to your door 30 minutes after being ordered.

The company has developed the Prime Air drone at its research labs in the United States and it is already being used for test deliveries.

Amazon said: "One day, Prime Air vehicles will be as normal as seeing mail trucks on the road today."

Speaking on US TV, Jeff Bezos, founder and boss of the online retail giant, said: "I know this looks like science fiction. It's not. We can do half-hour delivery and we can carry objects, we think, up to 5lb."

Kayaks

"In urban areas, you could actually cover very significant portions of the population. It won't work for everything, you know, we're not gonna deliver kayaks or table saws this way. These are electric motors, so this is all electric; it's very green, it's better than driving trucks around."

The mini drones would cover areas within a 10-mile radius of fulfilment centres. While that would give Amazon coverage of many of the US's urban areas, in the UK, where many of its warehouses are in rural areas such as Rugeley, it may have to build new sites to provide the coverage.

The firm says the drones will be built with 'multiple redundancies' – several layers of back-up systems in case a fault develops – and will be designed to commercial aviation standards.

Amazon has already released a video showing one of the drones in action. It hopes to launch the service by 2015.

The drones, called 'octocopters' because they have eight propellers, would carry goods in shoebox-sized plastic bins, guided to the right address by GPS.

But it will have to be able to dodge high towers and aerials, as well as other aircraft, before it gets the all clear to fly by the US's Federal Aviation Administration.

The UK's Civil Aviation Authority says it will not give permission for the use of drones until it is happy they can automatically 'sense and avoid' other aircraft.

THE BEST OF PETER RHODES

SMOKING is the stupidest thing you can do. It makes you ill, shortens your life and steals your money. So why do so many Brits still smoke? Because the habit is as powerful as heroin. It is a compulsive chemical addiction which non-smokers simply do not understand. And while the NHS should try to help people quit, the very worst time to take away someone's fags is when they are in hospital. At a time of fear and stress people need their comforts, even if the comfort in question is slowly killing them. The NHS is trying to root out inconsiderate and unkind nursing, but the new proposal for a smoking ban inside and outside English hospitals would be plain cruel.

THE truth is out. Immigration Minister Mark Harper says it would actually be illegal for the UK to limit the number of Romanians and Bulgarians allowed into the country. This is why David Cameron has been flailing around trying to slap a sticking plaster over the regulations by restricting benefits to migrants. The reality is that we no longer enjoy the most basic legal right of any nation, to control its own borders. So in what sense are we still a nation?

INCIDENTALLY, does anyone remember Ted Heath mentioning a borderless continent when he lured us into the Common Market all those years ago? Was it ever explained to the voters by Wilson, Callaghan, Thatcher, Major, Blair, Brown or Cameron? The Libs, Labs and Cons are heading for a right old kicking from Ukup in next year's EU elections. And, for 50 years of lies, damned lies and betrayals, it will serve them all right.

IN A blitz on cycle safety, 600 officers were stationed at 60 dangerous junctions in London this week. Clearly, they were not all experts on bicycles and the law. Ben Watson was carrying his two little girls in a Cargobike which looks like a cross between a bike and a wheelbarrow when one officer inquired: "Is that bike legal?" As Mr Watson put it: "I thought, well, you're the policeman, surely you should be telling me whether it's legal or not."

BUT then the law is now so complex that no Pc can be expected to know it all. In an idle moment this week, dreaming of next year's sailing, I flicked through the Department of Transport regulations on lighting and number-plates for towing a boat trailer. War and Peace was an easier read.

IN ONE of their early sketches lampooning the City, Monty Python flashed the caption ("SATIRE!") on screen in case anyone missed the point. Which leads me to Mary Portas, the shopping guru who has single-handedly transformed Britain's ailing high streets into stylish, dynamic centres of soaring profits ("SATIRE!"). Her contribution to high-street happiness this week was to suggest that some charity shops are "a bit smelly and need sorting out." Just what you want to hear after a hard day at the dogs' home shop.

OVER the past dozen years, in the quest to rid Afghanistan of the Taliban and create a decent society, more than 3,300 Nato troops, including 446 Brits, have been killed and thousands more maimed for life. This week it is announced that Afghanistan's justice ministry wants to introduce public stoning to death as the penalty for adultery. Makes it all worthwhile, doesn't it?

A READER recounts a chilling experience in a power cut which put out all the street and house lights. Bowling merrily down the unlit pitch-black road was a vehicle showing no lights and with no road tax, driver's licence or insurance which was miraculously avoided by other vehicles - a disability scooter. These scooters in the 21st century are like handguns in the 20th century. Something will eventually be done, but only after a large number of people have been killed.

Charity HQ gets into festive spirit

A NATURE conservation charity is inviting families to get in the festive spirit at its headquarters near Rugeley.

Staffordshire Wildlife Trust is holding a day of Christmas crafts and carols at its Wolseley Centre HQ at Wolseley Bridge near Rugeley on Saturday (December 7).

The fun starts from 1pm with families invited to get stuck into a range of natural Christmas crafts.

Children can make natural seasonal decorations from materials such as holly and ivy, as well as making Christmas cards and wreaths.

A lantern-lit walk around the centre's grounds will follow, led by Rev Mark Davys from St. Michaels and All Angels Church in Colwich.

Perfect

The hour-long walk, which starts from 4.15pm from the visitor centre, will feature traditional carols and readings.

Alison Rhodes, visitor centre manager said: "This is the perfect festive day out for the whole family. Kids will be able to learn more about the natural world, and there isn't a better way to get into the Christmas spirit than taking part in a traditional craft service."

The Christmas craft session takes place 1-4pm and cost £3 per child.

There is no need to book and families are welcome to drop in at anytime.

People should wear warm clothing, wear suitable footwear and bring a torch for the lantern walk. There is a minimum donation of £1 per person. Mince pies and drinks will be served upon return.

Booking is essential. For more information or to book a place contact the Trust on 01889 880100.

Chance to have a say on how cash can be spent

A MILLION pounds will be spent on improving parks and other public areas in Brereton thanks to a Lottery cash boost.

The cash is from a £200m pot of funding being dished out by Big Local - a Big Lottery programme and is heading Brereton's way.

by Laura Blyth

An application was made by villagers to the bosses at Big Local last year but it is only now that they can go public with the news of the successful bid.

Residents are now being asked what they would like the money to be spent on.

Sue Merriman, support worker for the Brereton Million project team, said: "We're handing out flyers to all the homes in Brereton to tell people about this and about the events where they can say how they want the money to be spent."

Teenagers

"We're asking people two questions. What they like about Brereton now and what they would want to improve on."

"Everyone likes Ravenhill Park. It's our main park. We could spend money on improving the park or on providing things for teenagers to do."

The Brereton Million team is hosting a number of events to gauge public opinion on how the cash should be spent.

Once they've done that they'll put a local plan together and send it off to Big Local before it is approved. The money will finally be spent in 2014/15.

The main event for people to find out about the £1m grant is A Day in the Life of Brereton on December 14 where pubs, churches and sports club will be taking part.

Meanwhile, Santa's sleigh will be visiting Brereton from this weekend to raise money for a popular carnival.

Residents in Brereton and Ravenhill took on the task of organising the sleigh run last year after members of the parish council were no longer able to take part.

Mother-of-one Natalie Pettitt, who organised the tour, said: "We had such a great time last year, it was great to see such fantastic community spirit."

The run will start on Sunday, December 8 at 4pm in St Joseph's School car park. It will end on Tuesday, December 10 at Brereton Lodge.

Mystery shopper scheme

STAFFORDSHIRE'S Police and Crime Commissioner Matthew Ellis is launching a mystery shopper scheme to monitor the service people receive from the police.

The scheme will enable volunteers to visit police front desks, make calls to the non-emergency 101 number and seek information on the force's website.

Their feedback will be used to give an honest picture of police customer service across Staffordshire and Stoke-on-Trent and highlight things that need to be improved.

Almost 20 volunteers have signed up so far for the permanent programme. For details call 01785 232385 or visit www.staffordshire-pcc.gov.uk/mystery-shoppers

Santas make a dash for it

Runners of all ages set off on the Round Table-organised Santa Dash in Penkridge

Santa rings his bell to start the dash

Lucy Richardson and Chris Roddie

PLENTY of people gave Santa a run for his money at a charity fundraiser.

Around 30 runners donned Father Christmas outfits to take part in an annual fundraising dash.

The event, organised by the Penkridge & District Round Table, involved a half-mile run, starting and ending in Market Street.

Before the run, Santa travelled around the route on a red vintage American fire engine before returning to his sleigh. Dozens of people gathered on Sunday to cheer the runners on and donations totalling around £200 were collected for local good causes.

Round Table vice chairman Chris Roddie said: "People were in good spirits and people were cheering others on as they set off. We were really pleased with how it went."

"There were kids in pushchairs being pushed by their parents and children aged between four and eight running with adults. "The oldest runners we had must have been in their 50s."

Deadline for Star award is looming

RESIDENTS in Cannock have only until this weekend to nominate their Christmas Star.

The award is the latest in Cannock Shopping Centre's quest to reward the area's unsung heroes.

A Star grandparent and Young Sports Star have already been crowned. Now the search is on for a Christmas Star, with the deadline only days away.

People have until Sunday (December 8) to make their nominations. Email canockstars@pmwcom.co.uk with an explanation of why they deserve to win.

It could be someone who gives up their time on Christmas day to help those less fortunate or a person who does Christmas shopping for their neighbours.

Include your name, the name of the person you are nominating, their age and contact details.

Cannock Shopping Centre manager Natal Chapman said: "This time of year people's kindness can sometimes be overlooked so we thought it would be nice to reward someone for their selfless efforts."

The winning Christmas Star will receive a unique, engraved Star Award, as well as a prize from Cannock Shopping Centre.

Car parks to be gritted

A COUNCIL has pledged to grit its car parks as well as main roads on icy days during the winter.

For the second year running Cannock Chase Council is paying to grit the town centre car parks and bus stations in the cold weather.

Last year's harsh winter saw gritting of the car parks and bus depots 92 times. On 31 of those occasions, staff also cleared snow.

Councillor Carl Bennett, the authority's environment leader, said: "Our depot is prepared and ready for any bad weather."

Hit by police car

A SIX-year-old boy suffered a minor injury when he was hit by a police car on an emergency call in Avon Road, Cannock last Thursday (November 26). The case has been voluntarily referred to the Police Complaints Commission.

Boots in recall on medicines

BOOTS has recalled some of its cough and cold medicines – including children's products – over fears plastic might have got into the liquid.

Boots said it identified a possible fault in the manufacturing process of the tamper seal which could result in small pieces of plastic getting into the solutions.

The Medicines and Healthcare products Regulatory Agency published the company-led recall for medicines purchased since September.

There is 'no evidence' of any problems among people who have taken the medicines, MHRA said.

The medicines are: Boots Pharmaceuticals Paracetamol 6 years Plus (250mg/5ml oral solution 200ml).

Boots Pharmaceuticals Ibuprofen 3 Months Plus (100mg/5ml oral suspension, strawberry flavour).

Boots Pharmaceuticals Chesty Cough Relief (100mg/5ml oral solution).

Boots Pharmaceuticals Dry Cough Relief oral solution.

Boots Pharmaceuticals Mucus Cough Relief (100mg/5ml oral solution). There is a helpline on 0800 915 0004.

Police plea on raid bid

POLICE are appealing for witnesses of a possible attempted armed raid in and around Gorse Lane, Great Wyrley.

The incident happened when two men, both wearing dark clothing and masks, went into G&J Supermarket around 7pm last Wednesday. One brandished what looked like a small, black handgun and demanded money.

The storekeeper pressed a panic alarm and they left the Anson Road empty handed.

The two suspects were both around 6ft tall and of slim build.

Witnesses are asked to contact police on 101 quoting reference 685 of November 27.

HS2 work likely 'to bring years of disruption'

Campaigners protest outside Parliament

DRIVERS face years of disruption on dozens of Staffordshire's roads with the building of the £50 billion HS2.

Construction plans for phase one of the scheme, between London and Birmingham, are revealed in the 50,000-page Hybrid Bill published last week. It sets out more than 40 roads and brideways in Staffordshire which will be affected by permanent and temporary closures. Opponents say the works will cause 'mammoth disruption for minimal benefit'.

The document, which is said to be the largest single bill ever to be considered by politicians, lists a host of roads, brideways and footpaths likely to be disrupted when the line is built, affecting residents and drivers across areas including Weeford, Lichfield, Whittington and Fradley.

Work on the 119-mile stretch of track is due to begin in 2016/17 and be completed by 2026. Roads set to have parts permanently 'stopped up' include the A51 Tamworth Road near Whittington. There are also nine footpaths to be permanently partly 'stopped up' in Streetthay, Fradley, Whittington, Hints and the Lichfield district. In each case, a 'new highway' is to be provided, says the document. Meanwhile 19 footpaths and 10 brideways in the area are set to be hit by temporary closures, as well as roads including the A5 Watling Street, the A51 Tamworth Road and A38 Rykneld Street.

Cabinet member for economy and infrastructure at Staffordshire County Council, Mark Winnington, said: "HS2 is going to impact such a vast number of people across the county – and now, getting from A to B. Because everything's up in the air, we don't even know exactly what problems we're going to face at the moment. It's a bit like fighting mist."

Ben carries on after staring death in the face at just 22

by Deborah Hardiman

"IT BRINGS home a sense of your own mortality when a friend dies in your arms."

He is just 22. But as a member of the Armed Forces serving Queen and country, Ben Jones has stared death straight in the face more than once.

Driven at by a suicide bomber and coming under fire from a Taliban marksman, the senior aircraftman reveals his story of life on the front line in Afghanistan.

Ben, of II Squadron Royal Air Force Regiment, recently completed his final tour of duty after suffering serious leg injuries on active service in Helmand Province.

He suffered a broken left thigh, dislocated knee and torn tendons during an attack near Camp Bastion on September 30.

Ben, who grew up in Willenhall but no lives in Cannock, recalled how he was part of a foot patrol among a group of 14 personnel when the attacker, who was killed instantly in the blast, struck. He says he was among four servicemen to be injured. "We had received a radio message to stop a suspicious car which had been spotted in the area," he says.

Detonated

"Within seconds it came careering round the corner. We started to draw our weapons and to flag down the driver to stop, but he didn't. He just drove at straight at us and detonated the car, which was converted into an improvised explosive device – in effect a bomb on wheels.

"He was five metres in front of us. I was injured by the flying metal and debris. There was nothing left of the driver and only a small piece of metal remained of the white car afterwards.

"The lads with me sent for Apache helicopters which came and provided aerial protection and cover until the American medical team arrived on the scene to treat us. Planes were flown in to take us back to camp. "I was taken to the operating theatre straight away to remove the bits of metal from my leg.

After five days at the camp hospital he was flown to Selly Oak Hospital, in Birmingham, where he stayed for four days at its specialist unit for injured military personnel.

He now wears a leg brace to aid rehabilitation and visits RAF Cosford weekly for physiotherapy. But this was not the first brush with death for the former St Thomas More RC School pupil, who grew up in Hobley Street, Sheppell Green.

Senior Aircraftman (SAC) Ben Jones, aged 22, of II Squadron Royal Air Force Regiment, back home with his dog Alfie

While on his first tour of Afghanistan in February 2012 the aircraftman saw his good friend SAC Ryan Tomlin, aged 21, of Hertfordshire, shot dead by a Taliban marksman right in front of him.

They had been protecting a foot patrol in Dashte in central Helmand when they came under fire.

"Ryan got shot in the head. I was just behind him," he recalls. "He died in my arms, but it all happened so quickly he didn't suffer. I was quite shaken up for quite a bit afterwards. It does bring home to you a sense of your own mortality. We stood in a sense of honour as his coffin draped in the Union Flag was put on a plane to be flown home."

But, despite facing death and suffering heartache since he joined up in 2010, he says he is proud to have served his country. "I'm glad I went to Afghanistan," he says. "I'm proud to have served Queen and country, but it's also been a great career move. It's been a life-changing experience for me."

Ben tied the knot with wife Grace, a disability and mental health nurse also 22, while on a rest and recuperation on August 8, but had to return to duty four days later. The couple are now due to go on a belated honeymoon to Lapland.

He is also due to take voluntary early release from the military in the new year and is looking forward to a fresh start. He is setting up a new handyman business, Green Tips Gardening.

IN MY VIEW

WITH
ANDREWS

BORIS Johnson says tackling inequality is futile because 16 per cent of the population have an IQ of below 85, meaning they will never be able to compete on equal terms in the labour market with the two per cent who possess an IQ of 130 or more.

Which is fair enough in theory, but I wonder if it always works that way in reality.

Suppose, for argument's sake that one of the 16 per cent with an IQ of less than 85 is born into the sort of background Boris comes from. Finest prep school money can buy, top public school from the age of 13, and then there's always the option of a bit of private tuition should those pesky O-levels and A-levels get a bit tricky.

Then, at the other end of the scale, there is one of the two per cent possessing an IQ of 130 or more, who goes to a 'bog-standard' comprehensive on a sink estate. 'Sadly, he doesn't pick up much from his mixed-ability classes because Mr Chips is rather preoccupied with stopping little Keanu from setting fire to little Johnnie's hair.

Which of those two youngsters would you say has the best life chance? Quite.

But he is right that the best way to address this unfairness is to invest in schools which give bright kids from deprived backgrounds a chance to compete on a level playing field with those who are privately educated.

Perhaps we could call them, I dunno, grammar schools or something?

HOW sad to hear about the death of Lewis Collins, better known as Bodie in The Professionals, at the age of just 67.

It also reminds us of a time when there were just three television channels, but a vast array of programmes you might actually want to watch.

During the late 1970s you could switch on almost any night of the week and watch a fast-paced, British-made action drama. The Sweeney, Minder, Van Der Valk, Shoe-string, Target – all right, maybe not Target – all pulled in millions of viewers.

The stories may have been far-fetched, the effects a bit rough and ready, but who cares? The scripts were spot on, and that's all that really matters.

Now we have dozens of TV channels, and prime-time viewing seems to consist primarily of tone-deaf singers, minor celebrities trying to dance, and a bloke in the jungle who can't tell the time. And they call it progress.

Jean performs with David Archer and Terry McCann

Jean Ward with folk club friend Jasper Carrott

Mandy and Jean dating back to around 1972

Singer Jean, 80, proves age no barrier to talent

A former folk club boss has auditioned for Britain's Got Talent at the age of 80.
MARION BRENNAN reports

SHE may be 80 and on crutches from a knee operation but that did not stop Jean Ward from auditioning for Britain's Got Talent.

The former folk club manager passed up on her last chance to appear on the show two years ago after an op and she was determined not to be beaten a second time.

The battling great-grandmother, who has a replacement hip and knee, arrived at the Birmingham auditions in a wheelchair. She hobbled into the judges' room using just one crutch, declaring: "Hello I'm Granny Ward, the bionic woman."

Chosen

The singer, from Burntwood, is now celebrating after making it through to the second round but faces a tense three-month wait to find out whether she has been chosen for the television auditions. She performed with her daughter Mandy Martin, who now lives in Wales, and her lifelong friend, Wolverhampton businessman John Carver.

"I was originally going to enter on my own but with it being so soon after my operation, I wanted my daughter and John with me," she said.

Jean's life has been devoted to music. In the 60s she ran two folk clubs, The Hazelslade in Cannock and The Barrels in Heath Hayes, and counts Jasper Carrott, Barbara Dickson and Billy Connolly, who performed at the venues, among her friends.

All were guests at her home and Jasper Carrott remains in contact. He was due to have been at Jean's 80th birthday celebrations on November 5, but was in Tenerife.

The Dubliners, Drowsy Maggie and UB40 were also popular acts who went on to make it professionally. Jean was also the resident singer at Connaught Hotel in Wolverhampton and The Royal in Walsall, both owned by Lord Harnham-Nicholls, father of actress Sue Nicholls, who plays Coronation Street's Audrey Roberts.

Her daughter Mandy and son Kieron inherited her musical talents. Through Mandy's husband Les Martin, a stage and production manager, she has inherited some musical souvenirs of her own, including a Tina Turner tour jacket and a tambourine belonging to Prince.

Jean is amused that her name recently appeared on a Whatever Happened To website.

Kicking

"I don't know who put it up there but I want them to know that I'm alive and kicking – and still singing."

"Jasper responded to it saying I once broke seven wine glasses when I hit a top

C. After that Roy Castle wanted to get me on Record Breakers but you can't guarantee being able to do it, and I'd have felt a fool if I didn't do it."

Jean will find out in February if the trio has been successful in their quest for small screen fame.

She said: "I don't expect to hear back from them – not with 6,000 people going for it, and that was just the Birmingham auditions. But it was nice to get through to the second round."

Joe's embarking on career in Navy

Joe Duffy, aged 20, from Cannock, who has completed his Royal Navy training

A FORMER Hednesford schoolboy was among the successful Royal Navy recruits on parade at HMS Raleigh to mark the successful end of basic training.

Trainee Warfare Specialist Joe Duffy, aged 20, arrived at the Royal Navy training base in Cornwall in September. During a 10-week course he was given a thorough induction into the Royal Navy, learning skills he will rely upon throughout his time in the service. The course culminated with the passing-out-parade in front of families and friends. Joe, a former Kingsmead Technology College, pupil, said: "I joined the Royal Navy to see the world and to have a great career protecting and serving my country."

His next port of call is HMS Collingwood in Hampshire, where during a three month course, he will learn how to set-up and operate the systems that give the ship information about what is on the surface and in the air. Joe will also learn how to detect and report radar jamming and learn about data links and voice radio circuits.

Nursery bid at ex-tattoo parlour set for refusal

PLANNERS were this week recommending a scheme to create a pre-school nursery in a former tattoo studio was thrown out amid concerns over parking and noise.

An application has been made to turn the former Midland Tattoo Centre in Wolverhampton Road, Cannock into a nursery for up to 38 children.

But planning officials say the road could become clogged with traffic – and recommended that Cannock Chase Council rejected the proposals.

by Adam Burling

A report to the planning committee, which was set to debate the scheme yesterday (Wednesday), says off-road parking is an issue in the area and the nursery could make matters worse.

Play

The current car park at the back would be used as an outdoor play area – meaning spaces would be lost.

The Tiddlywinks Pre-school nursery operates out of the Salvation Army building in Walhouse Street but managers want to move into their own premises.

However the report compiled by planning officers says: "The stretch of Wolverhampton Road is renowned for a lack of on-street parking."

The lack of parking for the residential properties, combined with the close proximity to the town centre, means there is always a high volume of cars parked along the street.

It adds there are concerns over the width of the entry to the driveway, which could result in a car entering the premises being forced to wait in the road for another leaving – creating tailbacks.

It also says the nursery would 'give rise to noise and disturbance from the outdoor play areas' to close neighbours.

Cuts are causing problems

RE: the letter from R Peaty - Holes in NHS and pension budgets.

Before making politically biased comments about the Labour Party, George Adamson and the Cannock Chase Labour run council, R Peaty needs to get some of the facts straight.

Council members get an allowance not a wage.

George Adamson took a huge cut in his allowance compared to his predecessor, and recommended freezing all councillors' allowances.

Thus, R Peaty's claim that council tax has been put up year on year, and local public sector workers have been laid off due to Mr Adamson and his party's avarice is not true. It is a fact Cannock Labour run council has done a brilliant job.

The reason council tax is rising and public sector jobs and services are being lost is the vicious budget cuts to councils by the Con/Dem government.

What has changed on mine memorial?

I AM surprised there now appears to be safety concerns over the planned miners memorial on the Globe Island in Rugeley (front page November 14).

Staffordshire County Council Highways department was consulted in the summer as part of the planning application process for this memorial and raised no objections on safety grounds.

Public art on roundabouts is common throughout the country and there are well-known examples across Staffordshire. The recommendation in the report from planning officers states: "The proposed statues would create an attractive piece of public art in a prominent location with no adverse impacts upon the views into or out of the Conservation Area."

"The use of a roundabout for public art is common practice and will not have an adverse impact upon highway safety and as such, the proposal is considered acceptable and in accordance with the Local Plan Policy B4".

On this basis, the planning control committee approved the planning application to place these memorials on the Globe Island to commemorate approximately 80 miners who died underground at Breerton and Lea Hall collieries. If the proposal was deemed not to cause safety problems in the summer by highways experts and planning permission granted on this basis, what has changed four months later?

Deep concerns over unhealthy situation

I WISH to express my profound disquiet regarding the events at Littleton Green Community School, in Huntington.

If it is true that a nine-year-old girl, among others of a similar age, was threatened with having a note attached to her educational records implying negative assertions relating to racial discrimination - due entirely to her parents not wishing her to attend a school visit - then it is nothing short of imperative, that the Board of Governors take immediate steps to urgently investigate what appears to be a clearly worrying and unhealthy situation for the children involved.

It is beyond the pale to threaten and intimidate parents by having their innocent children stigmatised in this way. There can be no justifiable, mitigating circumstances.

I have contacted The Secretary of State for Education and higher, to inform them of my concerns. My message to the Board of Governors, is this, do your duty by the school and the children, investigate those responsible for this disgrace.

In agreement with columnist

I LOVE Peter Rhodes' column in The Chronicle. He often says what I think. In the November 28 issue he mourned the days when shoplifters were taken to court and their convictions printed in the local paper. I too miss those days but I don't think all the blame should go to the justice system. I used to spend one day a fortnight at a local court and over about 10 years and I could count on my fingers - no toes required - the number of times I saw a court reporter.

Changes due over neglect

THERE have been lots of upsetting cases of child abuse and neglect in the news. Hearing these tragedies has been heart-rending.

I was shocked to find out the law on child neglect is 80 years old. Because it was written so long ago, it doesn't include emotional neglect. The type of abuse, such as ongoing scapegoating or humiliation, is now known to leave children with mental scars.

I hope your readers will join me in supporting Action for Children's campaign to update the law. By visiting www.actionforchildren.org.uk/changeneglectlaw they can find out more and ask their MP to join.

Thousands of people and organisations across the UK are already involved and together we're increasing the pressure on Government to make sure we have laws in place that really protect children.

Poppy appeal thanks

THE Great Wyrley branch of the Royal British Legion would like to thank all of the people who supported them in selling poppies in the two weeks leading up to Armistice Day. Many thanks to all the stores, shops and businesses who made our volunteer poppy sellers welcome and helped us to raise a total of £26,596.11p.

Every penny raised will go towards the running of the Battle Back Centres and to the support of all ex-service personnel and their dependants who may need help. Thank you again to all who made a contribution to this very worthy cause.

Request to the unions

HERE'S an idea - what about politicians asking unions to give money to local communities? This way, instead of them getting the money to get elected and re-elected, the community get the benefit, the unions would be looked on favourably and the politicians get the credit. That way sounds good to me.

Getting skates on to enjoy switch-on

Youngsters enjoy the ice rink in Rugeley as part of the town's Christmas festivities: Picture by Jon Parkes

MORE than 50 traders operated stalls around the town as Rugeley staged its annual late-night Christmas market. Rugeley Traders Association organised last Friday's event (November 29), which coincided with the switching-on of the town's Christmas lights.

Festivities started at 1pm with street entertainers performing throughout the day from various point around the town, while DJ Duncan Edwards kept everyone in the mood by sounding out festive tunes from Brook Square. An ice rink in Market Square rink attracted people of all ages.

At around 5pm Father Christmas arrived, walking from Upper Brook Street to his grotto in Brewery Street. The lights were turned on at 6pm in a packed Market Square by the Staffordshire Regimental mascot Watchman V helped by his handler, Colour Sergeant Greg Hedges. The evening concluding at 7pm with an extravagant firework display.

Dunelm store on move

A HOME furnishing chain will take over a new store at a Cannock retail park, creating scores of jobs.

A deal has been signed to allow Dunelm to move into the new unit at Linkway Retail Park, of the A5.

The park, which is home to McDonald's and Halfords, was the first out-of-town shopping site to be built in Cannock back in 1988. It has been hit by a series of closures but now one of the vacant units is being rebuilt and extended.

Dunelm will take over a 20,000 sq ft unit being rebuilt on the plot of the former Focus DIY store, which has stood empty for nearly two years since the firm went into administration.

Brian Thompson, a director at chartered surveyors Thompson Heaney, said: "We have signed with Dunelm who are going to take over the old Focus unit which is being rebuilt. The deal has only just been signed so I am not aware of details of jobs but a store that size will obviously create employment."

He said the park was being split into another five units and interest had been shown in all of them.

He added: "It has been a very difficult process but we are pleased to make this announcement and it shows the market is picking up."

Care worker accused of ill-treatment is cleared

A CARE worker who was sacked from a Cannock home after two colleagues reported him to bosses for allegedly ill-treating patients at a home has been cleared of any wrongdoing.

Michael Sedgwick told Stafford Crown Court he believed the complaints were made because he had applied for a senior post at the Alma Court residential centre, and colleagues wanted to taint his name.

A former colleague, Sarah Hawkins, alleged Sedgwick had punched 86-year-old dementia patient Jabez Edwards in the chest. Sedgwick also denied Sarah Hannay's report that he had grabbed 81-year-old Dennis Mayner round the throat and forced him backwards onto a toilet.

Sedgwick, 21, of Formby Way, Turnberry Estate, Bloxwich, was found not guilty of two separate charges of ill-treatment of a person lacking mental capacity.

The jury's verdicts were unanimous and the defendant was discharged. The prosecution alleged the first incident happened in the lounge and the second in Mr Mayner's room. But logs from the home showed Sedgwick was looking after other patients at the times the incidents are alleged to have happened. He told the jury just before he was dismissed from the centre, in Heath Way, Heath Hayes, he had applied for promotion to a senior care assistant post and was doing all he could to impress.

On the day he was reported, he overheard 'the two Sarahs' talking about the vacant post and Ms Hawkins said she had applied for it. Sedgwick now works in a warehouse.

Pub plans to expand

A RUGELEY pub has submitted plans to extend its building and undergo a refurbishment. The Red Lion Inn, in Hay Lane, has submitted an application to Lichfield District Council to create a single storey side and rear extension.

Safety fears over cyclists

Concern - The busy crossing on the A460 that John Lowndes says is a 'death trap' for cyclists after seeing several near misses CYCLISTS are dicing with death by darting across a busy road sometimes where oncoming cars are missing them only by inches, a motorist has claimed.

John Lowndes, who runs Powerflex Batteries, Cannock, is calling for action on the A460 between Hednesford and Rugeley before someone is seriously hurt.

The crossing links a cycle track through Cannock Chase and is used by hundreds of cyclists each week who take the scenic route through the beauty spot.

But Mr Lowndes, aged 49, says he has seen cars swerve out of the way to avoid cyclists who have entered the carriageway without stopping.

He is concerned that many people on bikes would not realise the speed that traffic travels down the country road.

The father-of-three uses the route as he travels to and from his business in Rumer Hill Road - and says near misses happen nearly every day.

The crossing was introduced last year and Mr Lowndes says it needs to be changed.

He said: "It's a straight road and people use it to build up their speed and catch up time if they are running late. I must admit I'm one of those people and have done it myself, and I've gone along there at some speed before."

"Even at night you see the cyclists come out and then the brake lights flash on the car in front."

Expert gives talk on 20-year career

THREE SPIRES GROUP WI

APPROXIMATELY 100 ladies of five institutes enjoyed an excellent meeting, which started with the usual reading of last meeting's record.

An introduction of presidents and county representative members were informed of upcoming events in 2014 for 95th Anniversary of Stafford Federation and 2015 for 100th Anniversary of National Federation of WI.

Mrs Rose Morgan announced her retirement from position of co-ordinator and introduced her successor Mrs Wendy Dunn.

After votes of thanks so far, she then had to announce a change to the entertainer.

At very short notice she had obtained singing duo 'Eternity' as previously booked group could not attend.

They gave an excellent performance, with some Black Country humour to tie in with our competition theme of a Black Country poem.

Boney Hay Institute served excellent buffet refreshments, then 'Eternity' gave a further short entertainment and raffle was drawn.

Votes of thanks given to entertainers, county representative, co-ordinator and all connected with making the evening very successful as usual.

CANNOCK SOROPTIMISTS

SI CANNOCK and District's latest speaker was Kara Bird who works as an embalmer within the Co-operative Funeral profession.

She was introduced by team President Lakhwinder Thompson and, despite this being a possibly difficult subject, gave an interesting and at times amusing talk.

Kara has worked in the profession for 20 years and explained that the most rewarding part of the job for her is the reconstructive work she undertakes, thus giving comfort to the bereaved when they see their loved ones at peace.

She told club members that she has done reconstruction work with soldiers who were killed in Afghanistan and that a team of embalmers are set to fly out to the Philippines to work in the disaster areas.

Kara feels it is important that work such as hers is 'de-mystified' so that it is not seen as something to be frightened of - indeed, she has told her own four-year-old daughter about her job. Soroptimist Ann Rotchell thanked Kara for her enlightening talk.

President Lakhwinder reminded members of their collection of gifts to be

Kara Bird, left, with SI Cannock & District Team President Lakhwinder Thompson given at Christmas to the women and children at Pathway, the refuge for victims of domestic violence and of the quiz night on January 14 at The Bams, Huntington.

The quiz is being held, to raise funds for the BIG project - Birthing in The Gambia. Teams of four are invited to participate, tickets are £7.50 each and a hot supper is included. Teams can register on si.cannock@outlook.com or by phoning 07971 494510.

Guild show 'How to' be stars

THE Guild haven't reached the dizzy heights of the TV ratings, however they have taken part in a TV documentary to be shown on Sky TV in 2014.

They took part in the filming of the 'How to' series produced by PMG TV.

The Guild was host to producer Guido Haak and his team, Margaret Key, National Chairman of the TG, David Brotherton and Jo Egan from TGHQ.

GREAT WYRLEY TG

The day consisted of individual filmed interviews of key members of Great Wyrley which included Bette Webb current Chairman, Pauline Benton leader of the South Staffs Choir plus the Vice Chairman Pam Ball, and Social Secretary Pat Jones.

Pauline Kelsey and

Marlene Wilcox who both previously held the post of Chairman were also interviewed. Margaret Key was filmed and asked about her role as National Chairman and the activities of the organisation.

Bette Webb opened the meeting and proceedings were also filmed.

After refreshments were served, the choir were filmed rehearsing and then sang Small Part of the World.

Quarry is noted for its work in helping nature

A QUARRY in Rugeley is one of two which has been recognised for its efforts in helping improve its natural surroundings, at an awards ceremony.

The quarry is one of two run by Cemex, the other is in Soto Pajares, Spain, which have been recognised for their outstanding contributions to biodiversity at the European Aggregates Association (UEPG*) awards in Brussels.

Rugeley Quarry, Cannock Chase received a Recognition of Achievement for its significant restoration work and excellent habitat management activities. The quarry in the Province of Madrid, Spain won the Special Award for Biodiversity for its outstanding actions related to the protection, enhancement and creation of key habitats for important species.

Both projects have been developed in close collaboration with SEO/Birdlife and the RSPB, the respective Birdlife partners in Spain and the UK.

Rugeley Quarry was the first ever winner of the Natural England Biodiversity Award, from the Mineral Products Association, for its work in restoring 80 hectares of high quality wildlife habitat to lowland dry heathland complementing the adjoining Cannock Chase Special Area for Conservation. The restored area offers a home to heathland specialist wildlife such as nightjars, Dartford warblers and wood larks.

"A central part of Cemex's business strategy is to integrate biodiversity throughout its operations," said Luis Farias Cemex's Senior Vice President of Energy and Sustainability.

Date set for forum

THE next Cannock neighbourhood forum meeting will be on Saturday (December 7) outside the One Stop Shop in Rosehill. Residents will have the chance to voice concerns to councillors and police from 4pm.

Tracy Harvey and Heather Roberts saddle up for the 100km bike ride

FRIENDS Tracy Harvey and Heather Roberts are in training for a 100km bike ride.

The women held a fundraising event last week at The Bell and Bottle, Mount Street, Hednesford, to help boost funds for the ride in London next May.

Mother-of-two Tracy, aged 35, met childminder Heather, 39, at the Sky Ride in Chasewater in September and they decided to take on a bigger challenge. Also taking part is university lecturer Rachel Good.

The women are raising money for ovarian, breast and cervical cancer research after Heather's mum passed away from ovarian cancer.

Children raise cash for typhoon-hit community

SCHOOLCHILDREN in Cannock have raised hundreds of pounds for communities hit by Typhoon Haiyan in the Philippines.

Youngsters at St Mary's Catholic Primary School responded to the appeal by international charity Cafod. They raised £450 by holding an own-clothes day at the school, in Hunter Road.

Abigail McMillan, Cafod manager for Cannock, said: "We have been overwhelmed by the generosity and compassion of our supporters since we launched our appeal, and the efforts of the schoolchildren of Cannock are another wonderful example of that."

'Tache the way to do it for MP Fabricant

Michael Fabricant MP wears his fake moustache at Prime Minister's Questions in the House of Commons

ENCOURAGED by friends to help raise money for Movember, MP Michael Fabricant wore a false moustache during Prime Minister's Questions in the House of Commons.

By midnight on November 30, by using a giving-website, the Conservative MP had raised £1,204 for the annual campaign in support of Prostate Cancer UK.

"I felt very nervous and embarrassed entering the Chamber wearing a false moustache," said the Lichfield and Burntwood MP. "I didn't want to bring the House into disrepute nor be rebuked by the Speaker John Bercow."

"When I walked in immediately before PMQs began, I hid my face with my Order Paper though a colleague, who didn't realise it was strictly forbidden, then took a photo of me in the Chamber. I only lowered the Order Paper once PMQs began. And then I chose not to try and ask a question or give the Speaker any excuse to tell me off.

"I have never been so well behaved at PMQs before, though the PM did refer to me as a 'Bandito'."

"It has caused much amusement among MPs of all political parties who keep asking me why I have now 'shaved the moustache off'."

Result

Mr Fabricant added: "Since PMQs, I have been stunned by the generosity of my constituents as well as my Twitter and Facebook followers."

"One donation even came in from Canada and another from Australia - £1,204 is a good result for wearing a false moustache for just 30 minutes. That hourly rate is even better than some bankers' earnings."

New apprentices told: "You're hired!"

THREE young people have been given the first step on the career ladder thanks to Cannock Chase District Council.

Elliott Norwood, aged 18 and Mark Griffiths, 23, have been given carpentry apprenticeships, while 18-year-old Thomas Pearse has been given a painting and decorating placement. The posts offer training and development opportunities alongside study towards a recognised qualification.

An Apprenticeship Grant for Employers is available as part of the National Apprenticeship Service. They support businesses providing apprenticeships for 16 to 24 years old, where businesses can claim a £1,500 grant per apprentice on completion of a 12-week period.

Councillor Gordon Alcott, economic development and planning portfolio leader, said: "We get fantastic apprentices who can bring the new skills they are learning at college and in return they get paid work and experience."

James Whybrow, Director of Workforce Development at South Staffordshire College said: "There is no doubt that apprenticeships have real value to employers."

Bogus collections alert

A CHARITY with a shop in Rugeley is warning its supporters to be wary of bogus collectors.

The Air Ambulance Service is concerned that vital income could be lost as a result of companies carrying out fraudulent activities and is urging potential donors not to be taken in.

TAAS, which has a charity shop in Brewery Street, has received reports of a hoax charity, simply calling themselves "Air Ambulance Service", sending out collection leaflets and encouraging people to donate.

The leaflets ask people for donations of unwanted items and provide a phone number and web address but no registered charity number. The phone number stated is no longer in use.

A spokesman said: "These misleading leaflets have a serious and detrimental impact on the charity's recycling operation and public image. As a charity, we are extremely concerned this will affect our legitimate collections. We encourage everyone to check the bags and make sure they support a true air ambulance charity."

"Criminal activities like this put people off from donating which, particularly at Christmas time, can be devastating for a small charity like ours."

TAAS's collection bags clearly state a charity number. Call 08454 130999, or go to: <http://www.theairambulance.org.uk/get-involved/recycling/clothing-bags>

Carol in TV date

Carol Trigg, guide dog Flora and John Lewis hamper

A BURNWOOD woman's contribution to a life-saving charity earned her a call-up to a national TV show. Carol Trigg has already been recognised for her long service to St John Ambulance.

She has dedicated 45 years to St John, having first joined as a cadet at the age of 11. She was honoured with an investiture into the Order of St John and runs the Badger and Cadet groups in her home town.

Last month, she was one of nine St John volunteers nominated to attend the Paul O'Grady Show, and was presented with a Christmas hamper by department store John Lewis.

The call came as part of World Kindness Day, which celebrated the contribution of volunteers, and Carol, who has only 20 per cent sight in one eye caused by glaucoma, took along her guide dog Flora and her friend Janet.

Carol said: "Although we had expected this to be a recording we found that we were part of a live broadcast. Those from the charities were seated on the front three rows. We enjoyed the show and Paul played his organ - supported by fireworks."

Agency pulls objections to building 140 homes

THE Environment Agency has removed its objection to plans for more than 140 homes on green belt land between Cheslyn Hay and Great Wyrley.

The move strengthens the case of developers, Cannock-based KGL Estates, whose plan to build the houses has been turned down by South Staffordshire Council.

The Environment Agency had joined residents in raising concerns over the application but has now withdrawn its opposition.

The Agency had been concerned over a lack of information about the type of material used to infill the former open-cast quarry in the past.

Materials

The body was particularly concerned given the land's close proximity to Wyrley Brook just 80 yards away.

Spokesman Catherine Ellis said: "Once we had received confirmation that the quarry had been infilled with naturally derived materials from the site, we were able to assess this development as posing a low risk of causing pollution to local waters, and were able to withdraw our objection."

It is a boost to KGL Estates as it prepares to appeal to government planning inspectors over the decision to turn down the scheme.

KGL boss Ken Lees, who was brought up in Great Wyrley, welcomed the Environment Agency's withdrawal from the fray.

He believes council bosses have seriously underestimated the number of new homes that will be needed in the village over the next 15 years.

South Staffordshire has assessed that Great Wyrley requires just 56 new homes in that period. Mr Lees argues that the village has the infrastructure for more.

Campaigner Alan Morgan said: "The fight goes on. The Environment Agency may have dropped its objection but South Staffordshire District Council hasn't, and nor have we."

WOODTURNING, art exhibitions and wildlife displays entertained crowds at a fundraising fair at the Staffordshire Wildlife Trust HQ.

More than 1,000 visitors turned up to the Wolsley Centre last Saturday and Sunday. Organisers said they were 'delighted' with the turnout.

Alison Rhodes, visitor centre manager, said: "Everybody at the trust is absolutely delighted with how our Christmas craft fair went and would like to say a big thank you both to the stallholders and everybody who came along and supported us.

"Over a thousand people passed through our doors over the two days, and there was a great festive atmosphere.

"Every single penny raised from the event will go towards our work looking after our county's wildlife, so they will also be getting a gift this Christmas time." At the event there were more than 30 stalls selling handmade crafts including jewellery, painted slate, soaps, toys and woodturning items.

There were also textiles, stained glass and bottles of the trust's fundraising Peregrine Ale on offer.

Displays

The whole of the ground floor of the Wolsley Centre, near Rugeley, was filled to the brim with festive fun and festivities.

Traditional mince pies and mulled wine were also available, and there were displays of art. A barn owl named Lilly also joined in the fun.

Each year, more than 100,000 visitors go along to the Wolsley Centre, which is soon to undergo a programme of improvements after landing a £7,000 grant.

Mourners gather to bid soldier a final farewell

Pallbearers carry WO2 Fisher's coffin into Lichfield Cathedral for the service

Warrant Officer Ian Fisher

HUNDREDS of mourners gathered to pay tribute to a soldier from the Mercian Regiment.

Warrant Officer Class 2 Ian Fisher, who died in Afghanistan, earned the nickname of 'The Colonel' while always leading from the front.

Comrades joined his widow and two young sons for his funeral at Lichfield Cathedral on Tuesday.

The 42-year-old soldier, a member of 3rd Battalion, The Mercian Regiment (Staffords), died after a bomb blast on November 5 during a two-day operation to disrupt insurgent activity in Helmand province.

Originally from Hornchurch, Essex, the Staffordshire University graduate was pronounced dead at Camp Bastion after his armoured vehicle was targeted in a suicide attack.

WO2 Fisher, who joined the Territorial Army in 1993 and later joined the army as a regular private, had undertaken previous tours of Northern Ireland and Iraq.

Intelligent

Speaking before the service of thanksgiving for WO2 Fisher's life, Captain Mick Whillock described his long-standing friend as a bright and intelligent man who would be sorely missed.

The officer, who first met WO2 Fisher prior to a deployment to Hong Kong, said: "I got the privilege to watch him grow up and go through the ranks. "As a professional, he led from the front and you knew on the ground with him that you were in safe hands."

"He was a really good guy and he was very witty. At the moment I just feel emptiness if I'm brutally honest - he will be greatly missed."

Lieutenant Colonel Chris Davies, commanding officer, The 3rd Battalion, The Mercian Regiment (Staffords), said: "To lose a soldier in combat is a tragedy that hits any unit hard but to lose a warrant officer of WO2 Ian Fisher's calibre and standing in such a tight-knit family regiment was a huge blow that has left the whole battalion numb."

Fundraising feat by line dancing group

Area fundraising manager Janos Toth hands over the cheque to committee chairman Sheila Simpson

A GROUP of keen line dancers has helped to raise £700 for Macmillan Cancer Support. The Chadsmoor Line Dancers held a ploughman's lunch to raise the money.

Members meet each week at St Chads Church Hall in Chadsmoor. The lunch was held there on November 8.

For the last 10 years the group has organised a fundraising event for Macmillan Cancer Support.

Annette Newton, Chadsmoor Line Dancers spokeswoman, said: "Our group is pleased to support Macmillan."

"A number of our members have known someone affected by cancer and we have raised the money to help people in the Cannock area."

"We would like to say a big thank you to all the residents who came along to the lunch."

Blitz on teen booze sales

POLICE and Crime Commissioner Matthew Ellis saw at first hand an operation to stamp out the sale of alcohol to the under-aged.

Mr Ellis joined teenage volunteers, plain-clothed and uniformed officers from the Special Constabulary and Staffordshire Police's Licensing Unit together with Trading Standards representatives in the town centre last Friday night, November 29.

The commissioner went to a briefing at Cannock police station before the volunteers, accompanied by plain-clothed officers, visited a total of nine licensed premises. Five venues sold to the under-aged volunteers, whilst four – Bar 77, Bank Bar, Bar Sport and Pied Piper – refused to serve.

Serious

Mr Ellis said: "This was really good pro-active policing and sends a really strong message warning licensees that selling alcohol to under-aged teenagers is very serious."

Inspector Jed White, Staffordshire

Police Licensing Unit said: "This was another pro-active licensing operation aimed at testing compliance of licensed premises with regard to under-age sales."

"The results are disappointing but follow the trend in Staffordshire since the start of the year where 40 per cent of premises have sold to children."

"We will work with the premises that have sold to identify why it happened and to prevent any recurrence. Selling alcohol to under-18s is extremely serious and we will continue to be proactive in this area."

Market trial boosts trade in struggling town, claim

SHOPPERS and traders claim a new street market being trialled in Cannock will help boost business in the struggling town centre.

The new weekly outdoor market was held for the first time, with around 20 stalls set up in Market Square, last Friday, November 29.

The market will run for a trial period of six months and a review of its popularity and effect on other businesses will be held in May.

Cannock Chase District Council approached Bescot Promotions, which runs markets in Halesowen and Wednesbury as well as the popular Sunday market at Walsall Football Club. Council bosses said they hoped the new market would bring 'vibrancy' to the town centre.

Father-of-one Mohammed Sharif, aged 36, of Walsall, who took up a stand selling footwear, said: "It's bringing people into the town from outside Cannock."

Butchers pleased to meat you all as shops sign up for campaign

A PENKRIDGE butchers is among the 80 local businesses across South Staffordshire signing up for Small Business Saturday.

Russells Butchers in Market Street has been going since 1975 and has registered with the district council for this weekend's campaign.

The day is held to promote small, local traders on one of the busiest shopping days of the year.

A further eight from the village have also indicated to the authority their intention to take part.

Lee Russell, whose father Dennis started the family butchers, said they hoped to see more local people coming in to try them out on the day and discover what was available on their doorstep.

Mr Russell runs the business with partner Ray Quarry and they are open Tuesday to Saturday from 7am to 5.30pm.

"All the meat we sell is English and most is locally sourced. We make our own sausages, pork and games pies and burgers on the premises.

"We also offer traditional English home cured bacon. We try to offer as many products of our own as we can," said Mr Quarry. "We decided to join up for Small Business Saturday to promote our business and hopefully attract a few more local people to use us."

Support

Stafford MP Jeremy Lefroy, whose constituency takes in Penkridge, is supporting Small Business Saturday and the district council's campaign.

He is urging residents to show their support by using a local shop, cafe or restaurant on Saturday.

Local businesses taking part are detailed on the council's website at www.sstaffs.gov.uk

In March 2012, there were 3,650 enterprises in South Staffordshire with less than 50 employees with 78 per cent of all enterprises in the district employing fewer than five.

Paintball company targeted by thieves

A PAINTBALL company near Penkridge has been targeted by thieves for the fourth time in three years.

Thieves stole imitation weaponry from Project Paintball, on Lower Drayton Farm which is run by owner Richard Tomkinson.

Two other businesses, Frontier Airsoft and The Farm Clay Shoot, which operate from the site were also broken into last Thursday (27 Nov).

Generators

In April 2010 and February this year, thieves made off with generators worth more than £1,000.

Banners have also been stolen from the site and Mr Tomkinson's van has been broken into with thieves stealing his sat nav.

Staffordshire Police are now appealing for anyone with information to get in contact and call their 101 service.

Memorial arboretum is looking for volunteers

THE National Memorial Arboretum in Staffordshire is looking for volunteers to welcome visitors and help organise events.

The site in Alrewas, near Lichfield, which is part of The Royal British Legion family of charities, already has 180 volunteers. Customer service volunteers get involved in all aspects of meeting and greeting visitors, leading guided tours of the arboretum and providing information to visitors. Successful applicants will receive training and advice from senior volunteers and external organisations, and will work alongside an experienced volunteer mentor.

There are also vacancies in the education, retail, catering and grounds departments, as well as limited weekend places for Duke of Edinburgh students who are working towards their silver or gold awards.

Bosses say volunteers find their service a 'rewarding and inspiring experience'. Managing director of the National Memorial Arboretum, Sarah Montgomery, said: "We are very proud of our dedicated team of volunteers whose contribution to the arboretum is of paramount importance. We look forward to welcoming new volunteers to the team in 2014 in order to strengthen our visitor offering even more."

Sharon Mee, a Jamaican immigrant who has been volunteering there for three years, said: "Having visited the National Memorial Arboretum a few times, I felt I wanted to give something back in gratitude for the lifestyle I am able to enjoy."

For an application form, email Kim Riley at kriley@thenma.org.uk or call 01283 792333.

Terry achieves his goal to recall memories of forgotten fields

by Andrew Turton

THOUSANDS play out their fantasies of scoring the winning goal in the cup final or bowling out the Aussies to win the Ashes.

And while the windswept fields and grounds where they dare to dream may be more modest than Wembley or Lords cricket ground, they still hold a special place in the hearts of those players.

Many works teams had their own ground while amateur clubs often had half a dozen sides playing matches at humble sporting arenas. As industry dwindled in the Black Country, many of those beloved grounds were sold off to become supermarkets, housing estates and shops.

Now one former player has revisited his old haunts to revive forgotten fields.

Terry Church, aged 71, has compiled a new book to rediscover many old pitches and grounds. While many grounds were little more than park pitches, others were neat little stadiums. Mr Church, who lives in Wall Heath, was a keen sportsman who played on grounds across the Black Country for more than 20 years. "It has been a labour of love for me. I played for one or two of the clubs over the years. You would go to work on a Saturday morning then go out to play football or cricket in the afternoon. It was a big part of working life."

Mr Church believes more than 100 football and cricket grounds have disappeared in the south of the Black Country alone. One of his fondest memories is the old Dudley Sports Centre and County Ground, where the Castlegate Business Park now stands off Birmingham Road and Tipton Road.

It was once home to Dudley Town Football Club and Dudley Cricket Club, and Worcestershire County Cricket Club would also play at least one championship or one-day match a season on the cricket ground.

But after part of the land collapsed in 1985 due to the underground mines the site was condemned and eventually redeveloped. Other notable football grounds included the Round Oak Steelworks ground, known as The Earls, off John Street and Pensnett Road, in Brierley Hill. It hosted many Birmingham Works League games through the 60s and 70s before the famous old steelworks closed in the 1980s. The ground had been used by Dudley Town but it was eventually sold off to be redeveloped as the David Lloyd Leisure Centre.

Nearby Brierley Hill Alliance had played at the Cottage Street ground but this was sold to Asda. Oldswinford FC had played on pitches at South Road, Norton, and had been a successful side.

Some grounds remain as they were but stand neglected. Spring Meadow Cricket Club, founded in 1929, had been based in Spring Meadow itself before moving to Saltwells Road, Dudley Wood, and then finally to Garratts Lane, Old Hill. The club folded in 2006.

ONE of the UK's leading experts in energy saving is celebrating after hitting the shortlists for three awards. SERS Energy Solutions Group, based in Cannock has been shortlisted in The Energy Awards.

The company is also on the shortlist for the Retro Expo Awards, for 'Installer of the Year and Large Scale Project of the Year'.

CCTV images are released of bank card theft suspect

POLICE are appealing for help to identify a man who is suspected of stealing and using a bank card in Rugeley.

The bank card was stolen from a car overnight on August 4/5. It was used on August 5 at 8.10am at the town's Morrisons supermarket in Market Street.

The female accomplice who tried to use the card

CCTV images also show another woman who tried to use the same card at the supermarket.

She is described as white, in her early 20s, of medium build and with shoulder length dark hair.

The same male suspect is also thought to have stolen a bank card in a burglary between September 22/23. The card was later used at the post office ATM in the town centre.

Stubble

CCTV footage shows a man using the ATM and walking into the town centre and the Jet service station.

He is believed to be in his 20s, around 5ft7" tall and of slim to medium build. He had short dark hair and with stubble on his face.

Anyone who recognises him is asked to contact police on 101, quoting reference number 207 of August 5 or 110 of September 23.

Parcels to brighten up troops' Christmas

MORE than 250 parcels have been sent to Afghanistan to brighten up troops' Christmas.

Members of the Staffordshire Regimental Association are aiming to send a Christmas parcel to each of the 700 soldiers from the 3rd Battalion the Mercian Regiment, formerly the Staffordshire Regiment, who have been deployed in Afghanistan since August.

Organiser Trevor Evans, Staffordshire Regimental Association parade marshal, said more than 250 parcels had been sent.

He added: "We have been delighted with the support we have received."

"We are sending anything and everything that is non-perishable, from socks and shower gel to playing cards, and each of the lads and lasses will also get a greetings card."

The Battalion recently lost one of its soldiers, Warrant Officer Ian Fisher, a Staffordshire University graduate, who was killed in action in Helmand Province on November 5, and whose body was flown back to RAF Brize Norton last week.

The Battalion is due to receive the Freedom of Cannock when it returns from Afghanistan next summer.

Chance to quiz bosses over health

PEOPLE can quiz health chiefs during a series of meetings around the county.

The meetings have been organised by Staffordshire County Council's scrutiny committee.

Bosses from Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust, the Staffordshire and Stoke-on-Trent NHS Partnership Trust and the Burton Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust will face scrutiny on their performance.

Kath Perry, chairman of the Healthy Staffordshire Select Committee, said the meetings would be an opportunity for people to have their say on health issues.

Next Monday, December 9, residents will have the chance to put questions to bosses from the Staffordshire and Stoke-on-Trent Partnership Trust, from 5pm in County Buildings.

Visit www.staffordshire.gov.uk for more details on the meetings.

Cannabis raids on homes

POLICE swooped on three homes in Cannock and Great Wyrley, seizing cannabis worth more than £60,000.

Officers raided the addresses as part of a crackdown on drugs. Cannabis with a street value of £35,000 was discovered at a property in Cannock Road, Chadsmoor, and a 45-year-old man arrested and bailed.

It follows raids in Great Wyrley in which cannabis worth a total of £26,000 was seized.

Loved ones remembered on Memory Wall in town

FRIENDS and relatives can leave messages for their lost loved ones on a Memory Wall at Cannock Shopping Centre.

Messages, photographs and poems will go on display until Christmas Eve in an empty shop unit between Costa Coffee and Holland & Barrett.

The centre will charge £1 per message, with proceeds going to the Newlife Foundation. Shoppers are invited to bring their memory to the Centre Management Suite on the first floor where they will also be able to make their donation.

Awareness

The Newlife Foundation specialises in supporting disabled and terminally ill children along with their families throughout the UK. The charity also works to raise awareness of the challenges families face, working at both local and ministerial levels.

Shopping centre manager Natal Chapman said: "With Christmas just around the corner we thought our remembrance window would be a great way to keep in mind loved ones that may not be around anymore."

"It is also a time for giving so we thought it would be a lovely way to raise money for Newlife Foundation while also giving residents the opportunity to share their memories or photographs of their loved ones."

Death followed fall

A PENSIONER died after suffering a head injury in a fall, an inquest heard. Albert Westwood was discovered on the floor of his room at Lakeview Nursing Home, Great Wyrley. The Smethwick Coroner's Court hearing was told the 86-year-old widower had previously suffered falls. He died a day after his admission to hospital. Black Country senior coroner Robin Balmain recorded an accidental death verdict.

Tree-mendous festival

The Rev Peter Hart and Cannock District Council leader Councillor George Adamson open the tree festival at St Luke's Church

HUNDREDS of visitors are flocking to a display of dozens of decorated Christmas trees which have taken over a town centre church.

Rows of trees adorned with multi-coloured baubles, tinsel and lights now line the pews at St Luke's Church in Cannock.

Hundreds of visitors go along to see the entries in the church's annual Christmas Tree Festival.

The event was launched by Cannock Chase Council leader George Adamson last week, who said he was extremely proud to open the festival. There was live music on the night from the Staffordshire Recorder and Renaissance Ensemble, Songbirds in Harmony Choir and Gentleshaw Handbell Ringers. Mulled wine was also served to visitors. More than 50 trees, which are no more than 4ft high, have been decorated by local groups, organisations, companies and charities.

BOOK REVIEWS

Recipes for success

NOT content with sorting out the nation's fashion disasters Gok Wan is now promoting healthy Asian cuisine with his new book Gok's Wok (Ebury, hardback, £20).

There are more than 80 recipes and the emphasis is on fast and fresh dishes, ranging from the classic Thai Green Curry to zingy Vietnamese salads and Sticky Chinese Duck Buns.

TV cook Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall says he enjoys Allegra McEvedy's cooking because "like her, it's bold and brassy." I can see what he means because in her chunky family cookbook Big Table Busy Kitchen (Quercus, hardback, £25) there is something friendly, almost mumsy, about her hearty style of cuisine and conversational approach.

Cakes

The co-founder of the Leon real food chain who is also a patron of the Fair-trade Foundation, has produced a solid set of some 200 recipes from childhood favourites to hangover cure.

There's more to Mary Berry than cakes as she shows with Mary Berry's Cookery Course (DK, hardback, £25) in which the celebrated cake maker offers help to novice cooks and those who want to improve their skills with a series of classic dishes that illustrate various techniques required by a competent home cook. Lizzie

Healthy Asian recipes in Gok's Wok

Learn with Mary Berry's Cookery Course

Kamenetzky's The Great British Bake Off Winter Kitchen (BBC Books, hardback, £20) is described as being produced by the Great British Bake Off team - though I can't detect direct involvement by Paul Hollywood or Mary Berry. But it does contain 130 recipes to help keep out the chill on long cold nights and short damp grey days. These range from hearty roasts and stews to sticky puddings and mince pies.

His mentor Raymond Blanc says Devon-born Michael Caines is one of the most inspired chefs of his generation.

Whilst some chefs have a higher profile than Caines, who remains very much 'hands-on' at his restaurants, some of the gimmick merchants could learn from his personal commitment to excellence. Judging by the dishes in Michael Caines At Home (Preface, hardback, £25) he looks for high standards in the home kitchen too.

These 100 recipes are for more confident cooks but, for those who feel up to it, Caines' book will help take them to the next level.

From cake pops to wedding cakes, Karen Sullivan introduces the world of sugarcraft with her Step-By-Step Cake Decorating (DK, hardback, £16.99).

She covers the necessary tools and equipment, key ingredients and techniques, before introducing a series of projects.

Caroline Bretherton's The Family Kitchen Cookbook (DK, hard-back, £25) is the sort of recipe book that could become a kitchen Bible. I can see it in ten years time, propped up and well-thumbed, looking slightly battered with a few stains and lots of scribbled notes inside, having inspired hundreds of family meals.

It is a weighty tome but it is stuffed with more than 700 straightforward recipes to suit a range of tastes. It includes dedicated sections on food for fussy eaters, for very young children, celebrations, plus cakes, bakes and puddings, and much more.

It is superbly illustrated throughout and also includes nutritional information.

If looking for a general, covers everything cookbook, this is the one.

Michelle Ibbs, who raised money for St Giles Hospice

A FUNDRAISER who climbed into the depths of the Grand Canyon has raised more than £1,000 for Walsall's St Giles Hospice.

Michelle Ibbs, of Westcroft, trekked for 26 miles alongside sheer drops and in temperatures exceeding 100F to raise money.

The 50-year-old completed the challenge in 42 hours while carrying all her supplies. The expedition saw her descend 5,850 feet into the depths of the Grand Canyon along the North Kaibab Trail, cross the Colorado River and then trek 4,460 feet up the Bright Angel Trail to the finish point.

Ms Ibbs, who was joined on the hike by pals Iain Whyte and Ian Edwards, raised £1,070 for the hospice.

She said: "It feels incredible to have finally accomplished this goal and to have raised valuable funds for St Giles."

Fault causes power cut

ALMOST 4,000 homes were without electricity during a power cut. A fault in an underground cable in Burntwood cut off 3,949 customers in parts of Brownhills, Walsall Wood, Burntwood, Cannock and Lichfield just before 8.30am last Friday, November 29. Around 3,500 customers had power restored within 10 minutes and the majority of the remaining homes had their supply back within an hour.

Name and shame call on parking at primary

RESIDENTS are being urged to name and shame parents who park illegally outside a village school by posting a photograph of their car on Facebook.

Parish councillors argue poor parking outside St John's Primary in Essington puts lives in danger.

Councillor David Clift said it was a 'last resort' to shame people into parking appropriately.

He said he had already been inundated with photographs taken by residents of poorly-parked cars. He has posted the images on his Facebook page and forwarded them onto Staffordshire Police.

Failed

The Hobnock Road school has already sent letters to parents and approached motorists directly. Police have even issued warnings to poorly parked motorists.

The school has also organised a walking bus to encourage families to go to school on foot, but their efforts have so far failed. Cars have already been photographed park on pavements, in front of driveways and on yellow lines.

Councillor Clift said as a result adults and children were being forced to walk on the road, having to walk between cars, while parents with pushchairs were struggling to get past vehicles which were poorly parked.

He said: "We have asked parents repeatedly to be mindful of where they park, but the message does not seem to be getting through."

Make that great escape to the world of comedy

STUCK in a dead end job? Living in a town you don't want to be in? Is there no escape?

The answer lies in comedian Andrew Lawrence, whose current tour reaches Wolverhampton's Slade Rooms this weekend.

A star of Live at the Apollo and Dave's One Night Stand, Andrew has become a well-known name on the comic circuit since starting out 10 years ago.

He won the BBC New Act of the Year in 2004 and has since starred in three acclaimed Radio 4 series, has twice been nominated for an Edinburgh Comedy Award, was shortlisted for a Sony Radio Award and is a double Chortle Awards nominee.

His current show is all about having nowhere to turn when things are not going your way.

Happy

"Everyone has got something they want to escape from, relationships, or work, and I have built my show around it," he said. "And there's plenty of audience interaction."

Speaking to The Chronicle ahead of his Wolverhampton date, the 35-year-old Croydon-born funnyman said he was happy to perform in front of 3,000 fans, like has at Edinburgh, or 300, which could be the case at the North Street venue.

"I'm just happy making people laugh," he said. "It's such a lot of fun and I'm making a decent and comfortable living from it."

"Stand-up was something that I always wanted to do. I started out in comedy clubs and got agent interest from there."

"Even now I still go back to doing comedy clubs just to hone my act or to get used to doing the five or 10-minute slots."

However, he added it was now more difficult for young hopefuls to make the breakthrough.

"It was a lot easier 10 years ago. There are so many comedians doing such a good job and it has become a recognised profession so it's harder to make that step up."

Established

Even as an established comic, however, Andrew was under illusions that he has to stay at the top of his game. He said: "You always have to keep it going, always looking for funny stuff you think the audience will appreciate."

Andrew Lawrence is at the Slade Rooms on Sunday (December 8).

Tickets are still available, priced at £15, or £13 for students. Doors open at 7pm. Call 0870 320 7000 or visit www.boxoffice@wolvescivic.co.uk

Kai packs punch in championship bid

Fair Oak Academy student Kai Harvey with the trophies he won at the world championships in Sicily

A RUGELEY schoolboy fought his way to success in the world kickboxing championships – while his sister is also proving to be a little belter.

Kai Harvey, an 11-year-old pupil at Fair Oak Academy, in Penkridge Bank Road, is a member of LMBMA and trains out of Rugeley Martial Arts and Fitness Centre. He was one of three club members putting their skills to the test in the world championships in Sicily, coming home with two bronze medals and a silver, despite competing in a category above his age and size.

Kai will be in action again at a tournament in February. A school spokesman said: "His achievement is to be highly commended. Kai is a fantastic student who has shown great commitment to his boxing. We wish him all the best in his future competitions."

Helping

Kai, a Year Seven student, has been training for three years and goes to the club five times a week.

Mother Lynette said she was immensely proud, adding: "Kai is such a role model, and so modest as well."

"He is helping with the coaching at the club and all the young ones aspire to be like him."

Sister Ellie, an eight-year-old Chancel Primary School pupil, attends the same club and is in line for a top award this week.

She was named Staffordshire and Stoke-on-Trent Sports newcomer of the Year, progressing to the West Midlands regional final last night (Wednesday).

Students put engineering skills to test

STUDENTS are being put to the test in the JCB Academy's first ever WorldSkills competition.

The new intake of JCB apprentices will do battle with Year 10 and Year 12 students in a test of their key engineering skills such as welding, CAD and business challenges.

Winners from The JCB Academy round of the competition then have the chance to enter the regional heats of the WorldSkills competition, going head-to-head against students from all over the country.

Winners from the regional heats progress to the national squad selection process with the hope of representing Great Britain at the 2015 finals in Sao Paulo.

Organiser Adam Carrier, engineering learning manager at the JCB Academy, describes the competition as a way for students to further develop the skills they will need for employment as well as to develop their competitive edge.

Students from the JCB Academy had to complete an application form followed by a thorough selection process. The selected students will now start their enhanced training in their chosen skill during the lead up to the main competition day on February 14. JCB will provide intensive training for the students and also continuation training up to the regional heats where successful students will have a national coach and mentor.

Pleased

Harry Tomlinson, JCB Apprentice and ex-JCB Academy student said: "I am really looking forward to being involved with the WorldSkills competition and I am pleased to have been selected to compete."

"The scale of the WorldSkills initiative is huge, it's great that the JCB Academy has become involved."

A JCB spokesman said: "WorldSkills competitions see the very best students from all over the world come together and compete in all areas of vocational skills to the very highest standards."

"The JCB Academy and JCB see this as an opportunity to develop the much needed engineering and business leaders of the future."

Archie's card design wins MP's contest

Aidan Burley with Christmas card design winners Archie Raybould, Maddy French and Isabelle Bracebridge-Henderson and Lesley Beresford of Pertemps

CHASE MP Aidan Burley has dished out the prizes in his annual Christmas card competition.

The MP received hundreds of entries from schools across the Chase and on Monday visited Pye Green Valley Primary School with Lesley Beresford from sponsors Pertemps People Development Group to hand out the prizes.

The theme for this year's competition was 'Winter Wildlife of Cannock Chase' and the winner, chosen by Mr Burley and his team, was designed by Archie Raybould, aged eight, from the school in Rose Hill.

Archie's name, age and school is printed on the inside front page of the card and he has also received a framed copy of his winning card.

Some 500 copies will be sent to local organisations and individuals across Cannock Chase as Mr Burley's official Christmas card as well as to the Prime Minister at 10 Downing Street.

Two runners-up, Maddy French, aged 10 of Gorsemoor Primary, Heath Hayes and nine-year-old Isabelle Bracebridge-Henderson, from Pye Green Valley, will see their designs appear on the back of the card.

Brilliant

Mr Burley said: "The standard of entries was once again very high. Congratulations to Archie, Maddy and Isabelle, whose brilliant designs made it onto my official 2013 MP Christmas card."

"I am very pleased to hold this annual Christmas card competition to give local students the opportunity to showcase their artistic talent."

GADGET REVIEWS

These stocking fillers are music to your ears

SPORTS fans in particular would benefit from the Kaos PDR 1 portable radio, a pocket-sized digital and FM radio with rechargeable battery.

But if you like music, you should also be happy with the sound quality of this small but versatile radio that picks up DAB stations.

The PDR 1 is easy to operate and also has the benefit of a Micro SD card slot, enabling the recording of radio programmes, ideal if you are unexpectedly interrupted five minutes into The Archers.

MP3

The recordings can then be listened to on the player or the MP3 files can be transferred to a computer via the built-in USB port if you want to archive your recording.

The supplied headphones also act as an antenna, so don't expect to use the PDR 1 as a bathroom or kitchen radio via a plug-in speaker because the signal will die unless you're right next to it.

The radio does not feel robust but does have a good battery life and a decent graphic display.

For sports fans who want to keep abreast of the scores or musos who can't bare to be separated from Radio 6, this is a good gadget at a good price, widely available on the net for under £50.

SleepPhones from the

The Kaos PDR 1 DAB/FM radio

superbly named American company AcousticSheep aims to help those who need music to get off to sleep but can't abide chunky headphones or the feel of earbuds.

Basically, it is a washable wicking headband with integrated wireless padded speakers. The sound quality was OK and the device pairs via Bluetooth with many smartphones and computers. There is a micro USB charging cable.

You can also download relaxing audio from the maker's own website.

One important point though, if you share your bed with someone else then

Ear warmer headphones from Midland

they will have to be pretty understanding because the sound does leak somewhat.

Also, I am not totally convinced I could fall asleep with something that feels like a pair of socks wrapped around my head, or as AcousticSheep call them: pyjamas for your ears.

You can find them online for under £70. The wired version costs around £29.

If you want to keep your ears warm this winter whilst also enjoying your favourite sounds, you could try Midland's SubZero combined earwarmer and hi-fi stereo headset.

Available in a series of designs, from red to camouflage, this iPhone compatible and adjustable set of comfy cans slip onto the back of the head, the band on your nape, and the furry ear pads really do keep your lugs snug.

They come complete with inline mic for taking calls and another cable with two pin plug for connecting to devices such as walkie-talkies. These winter warmers should be a must-have gadget for joggers who brave freezing temperatures.

Available from www.nevadamusical.co.uk, they make a fine stocking filler for £12.95.

Popular seasonal show from group

THEATREGOERS can enjoy a Magical Merry Christmas at the Prince of Wales Centre this week.

The CWAGMS (Cannock Wood and Gentleshaw Music Society) production began its run last night (Wednesday) and runs until Saturday (December 7).

The festive show features laughter as well as music old and new.

The show promises to get the festive season off to a bang. Showtimes are 7.30pm, with a Saturday matinee at 2.30pm.

Tickets range in price from £9 to £13 and are available from the box office on 01543 578762.

Hit sounds from West End revived

HIT songs from Broadway and West End musicals will be recreated at the Prince of Wales Centre next week.

Beyond The Barricade have a long association with the Church Street venue and always describe a Prince of Wales date as a homecoming gig.

The production, on Tuesday, December 10, from 7.30pm, features music from Miss Saigon, The Lion King, Phantom of the Opera, Blood Brothers and Wicked as well as a journey into the past with West Side Story and Carousel, before a Les Misérables finale.

Tickets are £18.50 on 01543 578762.

Festive classic to melt hearts of all who say bah humbug

It's Peace in our time

EXCITING Worcester-shire rock band Peace return to their adopted home city of Birmingham to finish their December UK tour in triumphant fashion in front of 3,000 fans at the 02 Academy on Friday, December 13.

The quartet made one of the most thrilling debut albums of the year with In Love and caused a stir with their appearance on Jools Holland's Later TV show.

With a sound that is, according to singer Harry Koisser, "a bit 60s, a bit 80s, a bit psychedellic", the band met up at Worcester sixth form college and bonded over a shared love of Led Zeppelin.

Peace features Kidderminster-born Koisser brothers Sam and Harry plus drummer Dom Boyce and lead guitarist Doug Castle.

Support at Birmingham will come from Sheffield duo Drengé plus special guests.

CHARLES Dickens' much-loved A Christmas Carol aims to provide the perfect festive treat this Christmas at Birmingham Rep.

The new staging of the festive classic opened this week and runs until January 4 at the revamped theatre, which is now part of the impressive new Birmingham Library complex.

Family

Aimed at family audiences from aged seven upwards, the production will bring to life Dickens' heart-warming and slightly spooky tale of redemption and promises to banish all those Bah Humbugs with lashings of goodwill and Christmas cheer.

On a bleak Christmas Eve, London's meanest miser Ebenezer Scrooge is his usual grumpy self. His only act of seasonal generosity is to offer his poor overworked clerk Bob Cratchit, Christmas day off. But as the clock strikes midnight his world will be turned upside down as three ghosts give him visions of a happy Christmas past, a harsh present and a terrifying future. Playing Scrooge will be Matthew Ashford with Guy Lewis as Bob Cratchit and Tania Mathurin as Mrs Cratchit.

The professional cast will be joined by an ensemble of local actors.

A Christmas Carol will be directed by Tessa Walker, who has directed plays for Hull Truck, Royal Exchange and Soho Theatre.

Dickens' story has been adapted by Bryony Lavery, who wrote the award-winning Frozen and has adapted Chekhov. Jason Carr contributed music and lyrics, whilst the job of recreating Victorian London has gone to designer 'Ti Green.

More seasonal delights follow when The Rep stages The Snowman from January 8 to 18.

There is an alternative at The Rep's Door venue where Bernadette Russell performs her own story, 366 Days of Kindness. In response to the 2011 riots, she committed to be kind to a stranger every single day for a year. In a blend of drama and stand-up, Bernadette looks back via a dinner party where guests include the Dalai Lama, Aristotle and Princess Diana. It is staged from December 17 to 21.

REVIEW

Cabaret, Grand Theatre

THE giant letters on the stage spelt out WILL KOM MEN, quite ironic as there was one very important thing missing on the opening night of Cabaret at Wolverhampton's Grand Theatre - WILL!

Earlier in the day Will Young had had to pull out of the performance due to illness and the announcement at the start brought a general groan from the packed theatre.

His replacement, Simon Jaymes, who took on the role of Emcee, did an admirable job but in many parts his voice simply was not strong enough.

But if there was a very good reason to 'come to the cabaret' enter Lichfield-born Siobhan Dillon as Sally Bowles. This role was perfect for her and her voice and acting were superb.

The story revolves around an aspiring writer named Cliff Bradshaw (well played by Matt Rawle) who travelled to Berlin in search of inspiration when he met Sally Bowles at a cabaret called the Kit Kat Klub.

She moves in with him in a boarding house run by Fraulein Schneider (Lyn Paul - whose slightly weak voice at the start improved as the night went on) and her suitor, Herr Schultz (Linal Haft) a Jewish fruit-shop owner. As the Nazis grew stronger, everything was thrown into disarray.

Will returned on the Thursday night to finish the run.

But in Atlantis, she's the love of Hercules's life – and she's missing, having been kidnapped by cruel moneylender Kyros last week. Now he, Pythagoras and Jason are on her trail – and turn to genius inventor Daedalus for help: what he gives them is a sense of hope. Unfortunately, their efforts to save Medusa have to be postponed for a while after they become unwittingly embroiled in the brutal blood sport of the Scythian tribe.

I'm a Celebrity Get Me Out of Here!

ITV, 9pm
On paper, it has to be said, this year's line-up of contestants in I'm a Celebrity Get Me Out of Here! didn't look all too impressive. But in actual fact, bosses have cleverly thrown together some of the most mismatched personalities the series has seen yet. It must all come to an end at some point though, and after three weeks, tonight sees the winner crowned. No doubt the not-so-happy campers will be looking forward to catching that plane home after umpteenth stomach-churning Bushtucker Trials and challenges.

Pick of the Week

The stars come out to shine for a good cause

As you get older, it often feels as if the years pass by more quickly.

Or, if you're a showbusiness type, then the next Royal Variety Performance seems to come around faster than ever before.

Thank goodness, then, that it always features top guests guaranteed to keep us coming back for more. Okay, so some of them can be a bit on the cheesy side, and there have been accusations in the past that the show is no longer relevant to modern audiences, but try telling that to the hundreds who see it live, and the millions who tune in to watch it on TV.

If variety happens to be the spice of your life, then this most spectacular of extravaganzas is likely to pep up a cold Monday night's viewing no end with two and a half hours of the stuff of which showbiz legends are made.

In fact, it could be said that if you're not looking forward to this year's celebrity-packed extravaganza, then there ain't no pleasing you, or that you're (snooker) loopy...

Yes, headlining the event is Chas & Dave, the 'rockney' duo who've been entertaining us with their unique brand of musical entertainment for the past 50 years. After almost two decades of silence, they returned to the album charts this year with That's What Happens, but we're hoping they'll be playing some of their old hits here.

It would be interesting to find out what Mary J Blige makes of them – she's also appearing, and we can't imagine that she's come across many similar acts in her native New York.

Gary Barlow, Jessie J, Olly Murs, Caro Emerald and Bryn Terfel are other musical performers on the bill, alongside comedians Jimmy Carr, Jason Byrne, Hal Crutten and Seann Walsh.

There are also special performances from stars of various West End musicals, current Strictly Come Dancing champion Flavia Cacace and Gareth Malone's new choir, Voices. And don't forget to look out for Attraction, the Hungarian dance troupe who won their slot on the show by triumphing at Britain's Got Talent.

The whole event is being hosted by John Bishop, who's championing at the bit to take to the stage.

"As a child, the Royal Variety show was like the Grand National and the FA Cup final – it was something our family always watched, the only difference being that we didn't bet on the winner," says the Liverpool comedian.

"To host a show with such heritage is something I never imagined I would do, and I trust my parents will be proud when they take their seats in the audience – although I have told my dad not to shout 'come on son!' It's not a match or a horse race!"

While the stars bask in their moment of glory, the reasons why the Royal Variety Performance exists and the charity it raises money for rarely get a mention, so let's put that right – it's the Entertainment Artists Benevolent Fund that benefits, and it deserves as much of a round of applause as the stars we'll be watching on the night.

The Royal Variety Performance 2013, Monday, ITV, 7.30pm

Best of the Rest

MONDAY

Fresh Meat Channel 4, 10pm

Throughout the ages, for as long as there have been students, there have been student protests – and Manchester Medlock University is no different, for this week Oregon rallies her pals to take action when she's outraged by the deportation of a Tunisian fellow scholar. Of course, the fact that he happens to be a bit of a hunk is purely coincidental... Meanwhile, Josie has a bit of a PhD crisis, which results in her being held hostage by Sabine, and Vod has a particularly enlightening therapy session that far exceeds its bounds. And will JP ever manage to impress Sam? Not if his latest plan is anything to go by.

TUESDAY

Last Tango in Halifax BBC1, 9pm

Celia is not the sort of woman you want to get on the wrong side of, as Judith (Ronni Ancona) finds to her cost in Sally Wainwright's ongoing comedy drama. After suffering a load of doorstep abuse, Judith realises Alan (who's on the phone in the background questioning baby Emily Jane's newly christened name) and Celia are the couple who waited 60 years to get married. Talking of which, they decide to tie the knot again so friends and family can attend the ceremony this time instead of paying a copper and butcher to sit in. Meanwhile, Caroline (Sarah Lancashire) and Kate's (Nina Sosanya) romantic weekend turns sour, and their relationship winds up on the rocks.

Heston's Great British Food Channel 4, 9pm

Fans of the culinary alchemist have had a long wait for Heston Blumenthal's new series, but here it is at last. As you'll have gathered by the title, this new run celebrates Britain's iconic dishes. Yes, good old roast beef and Yorkshire puddings are on the menu, but what batter, or better, start than fish and chips? With a dollop of inspiration from Henry VIII's chefs, he uses truffle, Madeira gel and sea urchin to create fake fish skin that will rest on a piece of turbot. But will he succeed in his goal of creating a bite-size portion containing the best bits from any chip shop?

WEDNESDAY

Sports Personality of the Year at 60 BBC1, 9pm

Back in 1954, when the BBC Sports Personality of the Year ceremony was first held, under 15,000 people voted. Now it's one of the biggest events on the sporting calendar. Here, former winners Princess Anne and her daughter Zara Phillips, David Beckham, Sebastian Coe, Bradley Wiggins, Paula Radcliffe and Steve Redgrave talk about their memories of holding the trophy aloft. Gary Lineker and Sue Barker also look back at tear-jerking moments involving Muhammad Ali and Bobby Robson. Whether this year's ceremony, which takes place next week, will live as long in the memory remains to be seen, but the show itself is sure to retain its status as a must for sports fans for many years to come.

THURSDAY

British Comedy Awards 2013 Channel 4, 9pm

There was a time when it looked like great British sitcoms were a dying breed, but over the past year the genre has been in rude health. One of the most ubiquitous comics of recent months has been Jack Whitehall, with the double whammy of Fresh Meat and Bad Education boosting his profile no end. Giving him a run for his money has been Bad Education co-star Sarah Solemani, who's also shone in sublime 'bedsitcom' Him & Her. Now we get to see who won what as the annual back-slapping ceremony, hosted by Jonathan Ross, gets underway. There are 16 categories, including Best New Comedy Programme; Best Male and Female TV Comic; Best Comedy Entertainment Personality; Best Breakthrough Talent, and Best Comedy TV Actor and Actress.

FRIDAY

Derren Brown: The Great Art Robbery Channel 4, 9pm

We're guessing that

Derren Brown is a fan of the Thomas Crown Affair remake, because its climax bears some similarities to his latest stunt – although Derren is stealing a work of art, rather than putting it back. The idea is this: he will take a painting by Turner-nominated artists Jake and Dinos Chapman from under the nose of collector Ivan Massow. He will tell Ivan which painting he's targeting and the time of the theft, and even gives him a photo of the person who will take it. Derren has already chosen his crew, and they're not hardened career criminals – he's handpicked a bunch of pensioners instead, the type of people you might pass every day without even noticing them.

QI BBC2, 10pm

We can't quite believe it's taken her this long, but comedy writer, performer and all-round national treasure Victoria Wood is making her QI debut. In any normal week, she'd be the undoubted star attraction, but some viewers may be more intrigued by the fact that she's being joined by another first-timer, Richard Osman. On his quiz show Pointless, he's usually introduced as a bottomless pit of obscure knowledge, but will he live up to his billing on QI, or will he be thrown by a quiz where the name of game is to score as many points as possible, rather than as few? Perhaps fellow panellists Jason Manford and Alan Davies can take advantage of any confusion as Stephen Fry asks the questions on this week's theme, the kitchen sink.

Well what a year it's been?

We have had a fabulous 2013 – opening the doors to our beautiful 'New Home' and then by increasing our staffing levels to ensure we continue to deliver the very best estate agency practice we can.

As a thank you to the people of Rugeley we are undertaking to 'adopt' Rugeleys First Responders in 2014 and have made it our chosen charity for the year.

For every house we take on the market for sales we will donate £10 towards the charity. Therefore when you take the decision to use the areas leading Estate Agent to sell your home you will be donating towards a fantastic community charity.

A little bit of background info about First Responders –

RUGELEY AND DISTRICT COMMUNITY

FIRST RESPONDERS was first set up in August 2007.

Community First Responders

The Responders provide emergency life-saving treatments to the community and respond to Emergency 999 calls in our area. They are directed and supported by the services of the West Midlands Ambulance Service and are dedicated to the community they serve.

Angi and the team truly believe that the service they offer to our community is vitally important and want to help them in any way we can. We would ask that before making the decision to instruct an estate agent in 2014 that you give us a call first to see what we have to offer and ensure you do your bit for the community.

Snow forecast? Then the Peugeot 2008 could just be the affordable answer

Drive time with Graham Breeze

JUST a few months after being impressed on the launch of the Peugeot 2008, I took another look and again came away with a good feeling about this new arrival.

On test was the 2008 Feeline 1.6 e-HDi 115 version and I was so taken with the option I have already recommended it to a relative looking to buy.

This 2008 is a real money saving alternative for those seeking the assurance of four wheel drive performance because it comes complete with Peugeot's superb new "grip control" as standard.

This system optimises traction in poor grip conditions and puts this crossover into a different league when combined with the 165mm ground clearance and advanced traction control. The system works because grip control transfers torque to the tyre with the most grip in a scrabbling manner allowing the 2008 to even negotiate a ski slope. It comes as standard with Allure and Feline trims, or is a £300 extra on lower-spec models.

The SUV crossover currently occupies less than seven per cent of the European B-segment but this is just the type of vehicle to see sales spiral upwards.

The challenge to all producers in this sector is to provide something distinctive and Peugeot have got things just right. Not only does the 2008 have the cutting edge with the new "grip" system but it also has winning looks too.

Scrabbling

Inside Peugeot has developed a new look too with the fascia capping covered in a silky material and a brilliant aircraft style handbrake situated close to the easy-to-handle grip control system.

The 2008 shares 67 per cent of its underbody with the 208 hatchback but has longer body overhangs. It's 200mm longer, 96mm taller and 25mm as well as 162mm more ground clearance.

If you are a driver needing lots of rear room then the 2008 should be on your radar. While the rear seating isn't the most comfortable in the sector everything folds completely flat to offer 1,194 litres of space. All versions get ESP as well as anti-skid, stability control, emergency braking and electronic brakeforce distribution. All round air bags are standard.

There are four badge levels, Access, Active, Allure and Feline, a choice of eight colours and a comprehensive range of petrol, diesel and e-HDi engines.

The 1.6e-HDi 115 Feline had a top speed of 117mph and 0-62mph in 10.4 seconds and a stop-start system. Running costs are low, emissions are impressive at just 106g/km and there are remarkable fuel consumption figures of 70.6mpg on the combined cycle.

Many models in the B-sector demonstrate a lot of body roll on the open road and the Peugeot is no exception but things weren't as bad as expected.

For a crossover the 2008 was actually fun to drive with a comfortable driving position and plenty of steering wheel height and reach adjustment.

For those needing the security of being able to cope with the snow or tricky conditions without the cost of four wheel drive this Peugeot may be the answer.

If you need lots of room in the rear, the 2008 certainly fits the bill

Volvo ready to go global with brand new Polestar

THE new Volvo S60 and V60 Polestar are set for sale around the world in 2014.

The countries confirmed to take the S60 and V60 Polestar include Canada, the Netherlands, Japan, Sweden, Switzerland, UK and the USA, with further markets, final production numbers and pricing to be revealed next year.

Whilst the S60 and V60 Polestar will be available globally, Volvo Car UK will continue to deliver on the call for fast estates by limiting availability to the new V60 Polestar only.

"We are proud to present the S60 and V60 Polestar. A car developed for those who share our passion at Polestar: That driving really matters and that a true driver's car should enable you to enjoy driving all year, on all roads and in all weather conditions. This is a driver's car for real life," said Christian Dahl, chief executive of Polestar.

"With the introduction of the V60 model, we are proud to continue the heritage of fast Volvo estates like the racing 850 BTCC, a tradition deeply rooted among Volvo enthusiasts," said Mr Dahl.

"Our motorsport co-operation with Polestar has been going on for almost two decades and it is rewarding to see how Polestar can use their experiences from motorsport to engineer such an exciting and competent car," said Derek Crabb, motorsport director at Volvo Car Group (Volvo Cars).

"It is very satisfying to see how Polestar have been able to combine this level of driving performance in their interpretation of the S60 and V60 with maintained original service program, class leading safety features and certified fuel and emission ratings. Customers buying this car will get the best from both Polestar and Volvo," said Alain Visser, senior vice president of marketing, sales and customer service at Volvo Cars.

The car is based on the latest generation Volvo S/V60 and marks the start of an extended Polestar production model range. Development of the car has been ongoing over the past years, picking up from the C30 and S60 Concept cars and the Australian S60 Polestar. Thousands of development kilometres have been driven on twisty mountain roads, on the Autobahn and test tracks from the south of Europe to the frozen north of Sweden.

"We have continued our work to create a true driver's car which is not limited only to a few specific driving conditions, but enjoyable on everything from your favourite winding roads to taking the family for a long journey, no matter summer or winter. And in my view, we have gotten very close to our goals, something that of course is best experienced first-hand behind the wheel," said Robert Dahlgren, Polestar racing and test driver.

Comfortable

Upgrades include modifications made to increase rigidity of the chassis to cater for the 80 per cent stiffer springs relative to the standard S60 R-Design. These changes combined with the tailored high performance Ohlins shock absorbers and 20" Polestar wheels results in a precise, yet comfortable, driving experience.

The brake system has undergone substantial modifications. Most visible are the 371 millimetre ventilated front discs and six-piston Brembo calipers, guaranteeing a high level of braking performance.

To reflect the increased performance of the S60 and V60 Polestar, positive aerodynamic effects have been achieved through subtle, yet efficient, modifications based on data from tests in the Volvo Cars wind tunnel. The changes are visible with the front splitters, optimising the airflow underneath the car, as well as a new rear spoiler and diffuser, increasing downforce.

The six-cylinder turbo-charged T7 engine has undergone extensive development with a new twin-scroll turbo and intercooler to produce 350 HP/257 kW at 5700 rpm and 500 Nm/369 lb-ft at 2800 rpm. The engine breathes through a 2.5" stainless steel exhaust system, making for a throaty engine note.

The six-speed automatic gearbox features a new paddle shift system that together with the Polestar developed Haldex four-wheel drive system takes the car from 0-62 mph in just 4.9 seconds and to a limited top speed of 155 mph. The gearbox as well as the four-wheel drive system and traction control system has been recalibrated in order to provide an active driving experience and maximum grip in all situations.

The interior has been reworked with new details, materials and Polestar colours, such as the steering wheel, seats and more, with the sole purpose of increasing driver support and control.

"All in all we have taken a major step forward in all areas, from chassis and engine to interior and exterior details. Development work has been focused on the overall package in order to create a car that you want to use every day, both from a practical and emotional perspective," said Henrik Fries, S/V60 Polestar technical project manager.

Polestar will begin delivery of the new S60 and V60 Polestar in June 2014 to local markets.

Peugeot's red hot RCZ coupé will go from a standing start to 62 mph in less than six seconds

Peugeot's RCZ coupé is chip off track block

FRENCH car maker Peugeot is to launch a hot version of its striking RCZ coupé.

The car will hit the showrooms in January priced at £31,995.

Inspired by the firm's RCZ Racing Cup track car, the flagship model rides 10mm lower than the rest of the RCZ range.

Power comes from a 1.6-litre turbocharged petrol engine developing 270bhp. Alongside the heavily reworked petrol motor, Peugeot has included a specially strengthened six-speed manual transmission, uprated clutch, larger intercooler and new twin-scroll turbocharger. The exhaust has also been modified, and features an enhanced 'sound system'.

Traction

A track differential has been added to the car's specification to provide additional grip, while the front and rear track have been widened to further boost traction. Other upgrades include revised dampers settings, plus stiffened springs and anti-roll bar. Dynamic efficiency and high-speed stability have been boosted, thanks to a new fixed boot spoiler. Finally, Peugeot's hot RCZ R rides on unique two-tone 19-inch alloys which accommodate new, larger brakes.

Boasting a two-second faster time around the Nurburgring than the regular 200bhp RCZ, the R variant will sprint to 62mph from rest in 5.9 seconds and go on to an electronically limited top speed of 155mph.

One giant leap and Cannock set pace

Greyhound 7 Cannock 33
THE first five minutes set the tone. Scott Pedley hung the kick off, Freeman leapt caught the ball and recycled it to Darren Baugh.

Jordan Pincombe opened the scoring with Scott Pedley converting. Brad Stanaway was next on the scoreboard with a converted try. Greyhound's only real attack of the half came via a big carry from their outside centre.

Cannock's third try came through Luke Jordan who spotted a gap to touch down, but Scott Pedley, looking to make 10 for 10 in kicks, saw the ball slide just wide. Josh Freeman used good footwork and it was converted. Iain Whitnell brought the half to an end with his try.

The second half saw Greyhound up their game. Cannock, looking to keep a clean sheet, were disappointed to concede after a series of penalties gave the home team possession and territory which they used wisely and eventually dotted down out wide, converted.

The second half was a scrappy affair, both teams working hard in defence and Cannock going wide too early.

The loss of the impressive Phil Painting seeming to blunt their attack somewhat. The introduction of Tomlinson and Trow into the front row saw no give in the scrum and Cannock were happy to show the depth of their squad with several players unavailable.

Still in winning form Cannock took another match - Stoke 10, Cannock 34.

Championship boxing makes a return

by Craig Birch

CHAMPIONSHIP boxing returned to Wolverhampton Civic Hall at the weekend with Leicestershire fighter Louis Norman becoming the new English fly-weight title holder.

Shepherd's Norman took the belt after coming on strong in the second half of a 10-round fight against Northampton's Nathan Reeve, taking the decision with all three judges.

Robert Chalmers had it close at 96-95, John Keane decided on 97-94 and Terry O'Connor scored 97-93. Going the distance took nothing away from a big battle between the two little men. The card's other title fight saw Burton's Tom Shaw shed blood, sweat and tears to be crowned British Masters Bronze welterweight champion, in a fight contested over eight rounds.

He was sliced open by a clash of heads in the second round but battled on to lose just one round against Chesterfield's Kris Davey, deservedly handed the spoils by 79-73 with Chalmers.

On the under-card, Tipton's Ricky Summers finished a nightmare 2013 with a bang as a first round stoppage marked his first inside-the-distance victory as a professional.

The light heavyweight bashed about the only-once-stopped Joe Walsh, with a clubbing right hook that made him sink to the canvas.

Walsh rose but returned to his knees, clearly in great pain, with Chalmers taking action to end the bout in just 142 seconds.

Wolverhampton's Des Bowater scored a hard-fought super featherweight victory over a capable adversary in Swindon's Joe Beeden. A points shut-out was recorded at 40-36 with Chalmers. 'The Wednesday Warrior' had to battle to take all of the four rounds.

Bloxwich's Luke Paddock added the experienced Graham Fearn to his winning record as he moved to 5-0 as a professional at light welterweight.

Redditch's Andrew Robinson, a product of Lions ABC in Dudley, bloodied the nose of Mark Till as he also recorded a four-round points landslide.

Swadincote's Craig Wilshee dropped Luke Osman twice in the third round of their super middleweight contest to score 40-34 on points with Chalmers.

In the show's opener, debutant Paul Holt saw off Michael Stupart, again at super featherweight. The heavy-handed Brummie had his opponent running for cover to win by 40-36 on points.

Meanwhile, amateur super heavyweight Lloyd Ransom bowed out of the ABA Novice competition at the national semi-final stage after a majority points defeat on Saturday afternoon.

Cleaner work from Luke Watkins, from Fitzpatrick's in Swindon, led him to the final.

Crushing end to run in Trophy challenge

Gateshead 4

HEDNESFORD TOWN 1
HEDNESFORD TOWN'S dream of an extended run in the FA Trophy, 10 years since they famously lifted the trophy at Villa Park, were ended on Saturday following a 4-1 defeat at Skirll Premier side Gateshead, writes Scott Smith.

The home side were soon ahead when Colin Larkin picked out Josh Walker who swept the ball into the net.

Disaster would strike for the visitors on the stroke of half-time though as they conceded a second goal.

A long ball down the middle wasn't dealt with and James Marwood was able to capitalise.

With eight minutes to go the visitors managed to reduce the arrears though when Durrell's freekick into the box was spilt by Bartlett and Francino Francis was on hand to bundle the ball in.

Joe Tait scored with a simple finish.

Sixty seconds later it was 4-1 as Marcus Maddison tapped home.

Revenge is so sweet for clinical Scholars

Doodson Sport League Cup Kids Grove Athletic 2 Chasetown 3
CHASETOWN avenged their weekend defeat at the same opponents with a clinical victory, albeit with a slight glance over their shoulders towards the end as the hosts pulled two goals back.

After just six minutes, Ashley Whitehead looked to have conceded a foul on Danny Smith but the referee waved away the claims.

Smith went just wide with a header before home keeper Daniel Read made a great save to deny Nick Wellecombe. And Read managed to clear the rebound from Joe Halsall.

Scholars' fans could have been forgiven for thinking the night would be a repeat of Saturday's missed chances. However, the deadlock was broken in the 24th minute when Ramone Stephens whipped in a great cross which Simon Brown netted from six yards.

Ironically, it was up the slope that Chasetown had dominated at the weekend but it was down the slope they bossed the game.

This time though, the pressure counted and two minutes before the break, Smith burst beyond Read and was sent tumbling to the floor as Smith knocked the ball beyond the keeper.

Read received a yellow card but the double whammy for the Grove No.1 was a thumping penalty from Brown to give Chasetown a 2-0 lead.

Four minutes into the second half, Chasetown had clear daylight. Read did well to keep out Smith's well-struck drive but, despite getting both hands on to Wellecombe's rebound, the ball nestled into the bottom corner.

Wellecombe snatched at a chance to make it 4-0 while Tesfa Robinson drove a ball across the six-yard box as Craig Harris' men looked to kill the game.

Twenty minutes from time, Karl Espley headed home to give the hosts a glimmer of a chance.

When substitute Ryan Grootc netted with 11 minutes left, Chasetown were defending deeper and deeper and facing the prospect of going to a penalty shoot-out.

That opportunity came with two minutes of regulation time remaining when a right-wing cross fizzed across the Chasetown penalty area but no-one could get a touch, and Chasetown's name is in the hat for the next round, scheduled for week commencing January 13.

Changed side fail to break through

Shrewsbury 38
Burntwood 14

THIS was a match Burntwood will want to forget.

With four changes from the side that beat Newcastle, Burntwood's skills were overpowered by the mid-table Shropshire team. From the kick off the visitors fumbled the ball.

Shrewsbury won the scrum and went through seven phases before the home flanker sliced through the defence to score a converted try. After 12 minutes Shrewsbury again breached the Burntwood rear guard to extend the lead to 14 points with a converted try.

After 26 minutes Burntwood opened their account with a successful 40 metre penalty from Peach. A further two penalties by Peach made the score 14-9 to the Shropshire side.

Unfazed by this pressure the Salop men used their power to drive downfield and put the right winger over near the corner flag to lead 19-9 at half time.

With 28 minutes left, Ben Holt's side produced a short-lived comeback with some good handling releasing winger, Chris Smith to score an unconverted try. Shrewsbury 24 Burntwood 14.

The Shrews hit back with a converted try on 65 minutes, and made the game safe just before the final whistle with a final converted try.

Clean slate vow after O'Hara loan deal fails

Football

JAMIE O'HARA has been promised a clean slate at Wolves after Kenny Jackett revealed the midfielder's loan to Blackpool broke down over finances.

O'Hara is back training with Wolves following his trial at Bloomfield Road, after Tangerines boss Paul Ince said the £5m playmaker was two weeks' short of match fitness.

But with the 27-year-old being offered a cut-price deal of £5,000-a-week, it is understood agreement couldn't be reached.

Head coach Jackett said: "I've been assured Blackpool wanted to take him on a football basis, but that financially a deal couldn't get done - that's why he's back.

"It's maybe frustrating for him that it didn't happen there."

Jackett said he is unaware of Ince's decision to reconsider taking O'Hara when the transfer window re-opens in January. But he has promised O'Hara another chance.

"I didn't know Blackpool would be back in January but everyone's situation changes with managers, form, injuries and suspensions and when the window opens again," he said. "So we'll see whether the changes result in something for him."

"If it does, we'll deal with it."

But I'll judge him exactly the same as everyone else - he won't be moved to the side, he'll be judged on his work and his efforts at trying to earn a place in our mid-field.

"He's got to keep working and training and if selected, try to work his way back in."

"At present, Dave Edwards has taken his chance along with Kevin McDonald - they've got the shirts at the moment."

"But if I think Jamie should play, I'll pick him."

"It's 'as you were' - he's in with the group, training to earn a place."

Jackett added: "When he's played, he hasn't got around the pitch as much as when I've seen him in past seasons, but I haven't questioned his ability on the ball."

"Getting that mobility very much depends on how much Jamie works but there's a degree of 'chicken and egg' because you need to play to maybe get match-fit."

"But it's very up to him - he's got to force his way in."

Pitmen target to aim high

HEDNESFORD Town boss Rob Smith has set his Pitmen team the target to stay at the summit of the Skirill North as his Keys Park outfit prepares for a hectic festive schedule full of local derbies and matches against promotion rivals.

The Pitmen travel to rock-bottom Gloucester City on Saturday as they embark on a run of nine games in under a month, before meeting arch rivals AFC Telford United home and away over Christmas and New Year.

Also last season's nemesis North Ferriby United, well-fancied Harrogate Town and Warwickshire neighbours Leamington.

Smith is excited about the run of games ahead but, while aiming high, admits he would be delighted if his team, currently occupying top spot in the Skirill North on goal difference, were in the top three by January 5.

"If we come out of Christmas and New Year in the top three I would be delighted, but we must aim to come out of it still in the top spot. January looks very scary in terms of the teams we have to play."

"We are keen to continue our good form in the league and try to rack up as many points as possible before the Christmas schedule gets in full swing."

Smith's side have a triple header of home fixtures after Saturday's trip with Bradford Park Avenue, the aforementioned Harrogate Town and Stalybridge Celtic all visiting Keys Park in the next two weeks, no doubt looking to threaten The Pitmen's 100 percent home league record.

There is AFC Telford United away on New Year's Day and then an exciting trip to Leamington on December 28.

HAT-TRICK SHOOTS PITMEN THROUGH

Hednesford 3 Walsall 1

WAYNE RILEY struck a hat trick as Hednesford Town outgunned Walsall in the Birmingham Senior Cup second round.

The striker put the hosts ahead with 20 minutes remaining when he beat Saddlers keeper Shane Lewis from a tight angle and then doubled the advantage 60 seconds later when he capitalised on a defensive blunder by Aris Christopherou.

And after Carlton McKenzie had set up a grandstand finish, Riley sealed it deep into stoppage time with a neat finish.

The hosts had the better of the first half but were only able to test Saddlers keeper Shane Lewis once, Tom Thorley hitting a rasping drive from the edge of the box which the keeper pushed out diving to his left.

Inviting

Dan Crane in the home goal was largely untroubled but did see a James McQuilkin shot whistle over the bar, while Amadou Bakayoko came within inches of connecting with an inviting Ben George cross.

Lewis was called into action early in the second half to tip over a Wayne Riley header which was dipping under the bar.

It wasn't all one way traffic and McQuilkin pulled a shot just wide of the post following a neat run, before Wes Rush came even closer to breaking the deadlock when he forced Crane to tip his low drive round the post.

Football

But with 20 minutes to go Riley finally broke the deadlock when he picked up the ball on the edge of the box and beat Lewis with a precise finish which went in off the far post.

A minute later the game was sealed when Christopherou put nowhere near enough power on his header back to Lewis and Riley jumped in to fire first time past the stranded keeper.

Durrell then struck the bar with a curling shot from the angle of the box, before McKenzie pulled one back with a perfectly timed lob as the clock hit 90 minutes.

But Riley soothed any nerves for the hosts deep into stoppage time when he raced onto a loose ball and finished past Lewis with the outside of his foot.
